Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,000,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Ghost or No Ghost.

We were seated round our pleasant fireside one night last winter, talking of the heavy falls of snow, and speculating on a sleigh ride up the Hudson as far as Poughkeepsie, until the eyes of my young brothers and sisters gleamed with anticipated delight.

Our uncle Otis occupied as usual, his big arm-chair, gazing through his large spectacles upon the pleasant family group that surrounded him with that benignant air which old bachelors assume when, having no family of their own, they adopt those of others.

"Uncle Otis," cried Fred, "you have traveled ever so much. Won't you tell us a nice ghost story? Do, uncle!" And the young scamp laid his curly, fourteen-year-old head on the old man's shoulder.

My uncle frowned a little and looked round, as much as to say, "Who has been putting those foolish ideas into the children's heads?" I endeavored to look as if I wasn't guilty, but I fear much that I had to answer for several sins of narration, possessing, as I did, a large repertory of such lore.

"It is only fools and cowards that believe in ghosts," said uncle Otis, in a severe tone.

We all kept silence, but after a moment's reflection he seemed to forget his anger, and said, softly—

"You wish for a ghost story? Well, you shall have one. It happened to myself, so you cannot doubt its truth."

We all gathered round him—Fred closer than any—and he commenced.

One evening in autumn, forty years ago, when I was hardly twenty, I was traveling in France in one of those heavy vehicles in which we traveled post in those days, when passing close to a small town—Sainte Gabelle, I think, it was called—a furious storm overtook us, and one of the horses was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

There was no possibility of proceeding; so, philosophically leaving my courier to follow with my baggage, I quietly walked to a roadside inn, which was about a quarter of a mile distant. The place seemed filled with company as I entered—some Spanish merchants, young sportsmen overtaken by the storm, with a few persons whose trade or occupation was not discernible. We all crowded round the huge fire to dry ourselves, and in a short time after supper was announced.

This unlocked every tongue, and conversation—before conducted in monosyllables—became general. Each related the perils he had passed through. One had been flung from his horse; another's carriage had been upset. At last some one cried.

"The devil must be aboard to-night!—It's a regular witches' sabbath!"

This remark was commonplace enough, but it gave birth to a singular rejoinder:

"Sorcerers and ghosts prefer a fine moonlight night to a stormy one like this."

We all looked at the speaker. It was one of the Spanish merchants. His race was easily known by his dress and figure; breeches open at the knee, gaiters laced with thongs of leather, red cloak picturesquely hanging from the shoulders, and an air of proud poverty painted on his brown face, around which hung long black curling hair. No one seemed inclined to contradict this observation, made, as it was, in a grave, severe voice, until a young man who sat next to me burst out into a fit of loud laughter, and said:

"You appear, sir, to know the habits of ghosts. Have they told you that they do not like to get wet in their feet?"

He had scarcely finished speaking, when the Spaniard cast on him a ferocious glance, saying:

"Young man, you must not speak so lightly of things you know nothing about."

"Do you mean to pretend to persuade me to believe in ghosts?" answered the young man contemptuously.

"Perhaps," replied the Spaniard, "if you had the courage to make the trial."

My neighbor bounded angrily from his seat; but he composed himself instantly, saying, calmly:

"You would have to pay dearly for this impertinence if it was not that of a fool."

"That of a fool!" cried the Spaniard, leaping to his feet. "Well," he added, bringing his fist down on the table, and flinging thereon a large leathern purse; "see! here are five thousand francs, which I am content to lose, if, in one hour from this time, I do not show you the ghost of any of your deceased friends that you choose to name, no matter how long he may be dead; and, if, after having recognized him, you have the courage to permit him to lay his lips against yours."

The Spaniard had such a terrible air, as he said this, that we all started. My neighbor alone preserved his disdainful and mocking smile.

"You will do that, will you?" he answered.

"Yes; and I will stake these five thousand francs on the event, if you will wager a like sum. If I fail, I lose; if you are vanquished, I win."

The young man remained silent for a moment, the said gaily:

"Five thousand francs, most worthy magician, is more than a poor student ever possesses. But if you will make the bet a hundred francs, I am your man."

The Spaniard took back his purse in silence; then he said in a contemptuous tone,

"Ah, you back out, my little braggadocio!"

"I back out!" cried my neighbor. "Ah, if I had the five thousand francs you would see whether I would back out or not!"

"I could not resist a sudden temptation that seized me.

"Here's a quarter of the bet," I cried, putting the money on the table. "I will go shares with you, young man."

I had scarcely done this, when five or six persons round the table, attracted as I was by the singularity of the challenge, offered to take shares; and in a very few moments the sum required by the Spaniard was made up. This last seemed so sure of his taunt, that he gave of the bet to the young student, and began to make his preparation for the trial.

[To be concluded.]

STEALING ON A LARGE SCALE.—The whole amount of public funds belonging to the state of Illinois, now missing, but which have been traced to the hands of the late democratic governor of that state, Joel A. Matteson, is $428,960. Matteson is now using a large percentage of his ill-gotten gains, it is said, to carry Illinois for Douglas, and to elect a democratic legislature.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

Dresses cut and made to order, one door north McKey & Bro.'s, up stairs. may9dawtf

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description,
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS, - - - $450,000

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

THESE popular BITTERS possess all the nourishing and invigorating properties of PURE OLD BOURBON WHISKEY, and are considered the most efficacious TONIC and STIMULANT, as well as the most agreeable STOMACHIC ever offered to the public. As a Tonic for Old People, delicate Ladies, convalescent invalids, and all weakly people, they cannot be surpassed; in all cases of Weakness or Debility, they will give immediate relief, and impart a strong healthy tone to the system. A trial will establish their merits over all other Tonics now in use. For LUNG COMPLAINTS, BRONCHITIS, DYSPEPSIA, NERVOUS DISEASES AND LIVER COMPLAINTS, they are an invaluable Remedy; and are a certain preventative of CHILLS and FEVERS.

Put up in Quart Bottles, in cases of one and two dozen, and for sale by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Ghost or No Ghost.

We were seated round our pleasant fire-side one night last winter, talking of the heavy falls of snow, and speculating on a sleigh-ride up the Hudson as far as Poughkeepsie, until the eyes of my young brothers and sisters gleamed with anticipated delight.

Our uncle Otis occupied as usual, his big arm-chair, gazing through his large spectacles upon the pleasant family group that surrounded him with that benignant air which old bachelors assume when, having no family of their own, they adopt those of others.

"Uncle Otis," cried Fred, "you have traveled ever so much. Won't you tell us a nice ghost story? Do, uncle!" And the young scamp laid his curly, fourteen-year-old head on the old man's shoulder.

My uncle frowned a little and looked round, as much as to say, "Who has been putting those foolish ideas into the children's heads?" I endeavored to look as if I wasn't guilty, but I fear much that I had to answer for several sins of narration, possessing, as I did, a large repertory of such lore.

"It is only fools and cowards that believe in ghosts," said uncle Otis, in a severe tone.

We all kept silence, but after a moment's reflection he seemed to forget his anger, and said, softly—

"You wish for a ghost story? Well, you shall have one. It happened to myself, so you cannot doubt its truth."

We all gathered round him—Fred closer than any—and he commenced.

One evening in autumn, forty years ago, when I was hardly twenty, I was traveling in France in one of those heavy vehicles in which we traveled post in those days, when passing close to a small town—Sainte Gabelle, I think, it was called—a furious storm overtook us, and one of the horses was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

There was no possibility of proceeding; so, philosophically leaving my courier to follow with my baggage, I quietly walked to a roadside inn, which was about a quarter of a mile distant. The place seemed filled with company as I entered—some Spanish merchants, young sportsmen overtaken by the storm, with a few persons whose trade or occupation was not discernible. We all crowded round the huge fire to dry ourselves, and in a short time after supper was announced.

This unlocked every tongue, and conversation—before conducted in monosyllables—became general. Each related the perils he had passed through. One had been flung from his horse; another's carriage had been upset. At last some one cried.

"The devil must be aboard to-night!—It's a regular witches' sabbath!"

This remark was commonplace enough, but it gave birth to a singular rejoinder:

"Sorcerers and ghosts prefer a fine moonlight night to a stormy one like this."

We all looked at the speaker. It was one of the Spanish merchants. His race was easily known by his dress and figure; breeches open at the knee, gaiters laced with thongs of leather, red cloak picturesquely hanging from the shoulders, and an air of proud poverty painted on his brown face, around which hung long black curling hair. No one seemed inclined to contradict this observation, made, as it was, in a grave, severe voice, until a young man who sat next to me burst out into a fit of loud laughter, and said:

"You appear, sir, to know the habits of ghosts. Have they told you that they do not like to get wet in their feet?"

He had scarcely finished speaking, when the Spaniard cast on him a ferocious glance, saying:

"Young man, you must not speak so lightly of things you know nothing about."

"Do you mean to pretend to persuade me to believe in ghosts?" answered the young man contemptuously.

"Perhaps," replied the Spaniard, "if you had the courage to make the trial."

My neighbor bounded angrily from his seat; but he composed himself instantly, saying, calmly:

"You would have to pay dearly for this impertinence if it was not that of a fool."

"That of a fool!" cried the Spaniard, leaping to his feet. "Well," he added, bringing his fist down on the table, and flinging thereon a large leathern purse; "see! here are five thousand francs, which I am content to lose, if, in one hour from this time, I do not show you the ghost of any of your deceased friends that you choose to name, no matter how long he may be dead; and, if, after having recognized him, you have the courage to permit him to lay his lips against yours."

The Spaniard had such a terrible air, as he said this, that we all started. My neighbor alone preserved his disdainful and mocking smile.

"You will do that, will you?" he answered.

"Yes; and I will stake these five thousand francs on the event, if you will wager a like sum. If I fail, I lose; if you are vanquished, I win."

The young man remained silent for a moment, the said gaily:

"Five thousand francs, most worthy magician, is more than a poor student ever possesses. But if you will make the bet a hundred francs, I am your man."

The Spaniard took back his purse in silence; then he said in a contemptuous tone,

"Ah, you back out, my little braggadocio!"

"I back out!" cried my neighbor. "Ah, if I had the five thousand francs you would see whether I would back out or not!"

"I could not resist a sudden temptation that seized me.

"Here's a quarter of the bet," I cried, putting the money on the table. "I will go shares with you, young man."

I had scarcely done this, when five or six persons round the table, attracted as I was by the singularity of the challenge, offered to take shares; and in a very few moments the sum required by the Spaniard was made up. This last seemed so sure of his taunt, that he gave of the bet to the young student, and began to make his preparation for the trial.

[To be concluded.]

STEALING ON A LARGE SCALE.—The whole amount of public funds belonging to the state of Illinois, now missing, but which have been traced to the hands of the late democratic governor of that state, Joel A. Matteson, is $428,960. Matteson is now using a large percentage of his ill-gotten gains, it is said, to carry Illinois for Douglas, and to elect a democratic legislature.

IMPORTANT ANNOUNCEMENT.
Grand Display of French Millinery, &c.
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price, Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

N. B.—Old bonnets cleaned, bleached, pressed and made to look as good as new on short notice.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city;

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or, any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone

of every description,

PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN

of any required dimension.

Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

Insurance against loss or damage by fire, on Dwellings, Furniture, Stores, Warehouses, Merchandise, Mills, Manufactories, and most other kinds of property, can be effected in this company upon as favorable terms as the nature of the risks and security of policy-holders will admit.

The above is the oldest company doing business in this state, and with peculiar propriety has been denominated "The Old Hartford." As an indemnity to the insured, it refers to a solid million of assets well invested; and if anything were needed to commend it to the public for liberal patronage, we might offer its history of success in business and honorable dealing with its patrons, for over half a century, as amply sufficient for the purpose.

THE above are First Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but few equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortgages upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent than railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and liable, in times of panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calculated to mislead by publishing partial and one-sided statements of their condition, and without a cash surplus on hand sufficient to reinsure their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal patronage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by Mutual Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All losses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company,
CASH CAPITAL OVER $1,900,000

all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

DAILY GAZETTE.

A Ghost or No Ghost.

"We were seated round our pleasant fireside one night last winter, talking of the heavy falls of snow, and speculating on a sleigh-ride up the Hudson as far as Poughkeepsie, until the eyes of my young brothers and sisters gleamed with anticipated delight.

Our uncle Otis occupied as usual, his big arm-chair, gazing through his large spectacles upon the pleasant family group that surrounded him with that benignant air which old bachelors assume when, having no family of their own, they adopt those of others.

"Uncle Otis," cried Fred, "you have traveled ever so much. Won't you tell us a nice "ghost story? Do, uncle!" And the young scamp laid his curly, fourteen-year-old head on the old man's shoulder.

My uncle frowned a little and looked round, as much as to say, "Who has been putting those foolish ideas into the children's heads?" I endeavored to look as if I wasn't guilty, but I fear much that I had to answer for several sins of narration, possessing, as I did, a large repertory of such lore.

"It is only fools and cowards that believe in ghosts," said uncle Otis, in a severe tone.

We all kept silence, but after a moment's reflection he seemed to forget his anger, and said, softly—

"You wish for a ghost story? Well, you shall have one. It happened to myself, so you cannot doubt its truth."

We all gathered round him—Fred closer than any—and he commenced.

One evening in autumn, forty years ago, when I was hardly twenty, I was traveling in France in one of those heavy vehicles in which we traveled post in those days, when passing close to a small town—Sainte Gabelle, I think, it was called—a furious storm overtook us, and one of the horses was struck by lightning and instantly killed.

There was no possibility of proceeding; so, philosophically leaving my courier to follow with my baggage, I quietly walked to a roadside inn, which was about a quarter of a mile distant. The place seemed filled with company as I entered—some Spanish merchants, young sportsmen overtaken by the storm, with a few persons whose trade or occupation was not discernible. We all crowded round the huge fire to dry ourselves, and in a short time after supper was announced.

This unlocked every tongue, and conversation—before conducted in monosyllables—became general. Each related the perils he had passed through. One had been flung from his horse; another's carriage had been upset. At last some one cried.

"The devil must be aboard to-night!—It's a regular witches' sabbath!"

This remark was commonplace enough, but it gave birth to a singular rejoinder:

"Sorcerers and ghosts prefer a fine moonlight night to a stormy one like this."

We all looked at the speaker. It was one of the Spanish merchants. His race was easily known by his dress and figure; breeches open at the knee, gaiters laced with thongs of leather, red cloak picturesquely hanging from the shoulders, and an air of proud poverty painted on his brown face, around which hung long black curling hair. No one seemed inclined to contradict this observation, made, as it was, in a grave, severe voice, until a young man who sat next to me burst out into a fit of loud laughter, and said:

"You appear, sir, to know the habits of ghosts. Have they told you that they do not like to get wet in their feet?"

He had scarcely finished speaking, when the Spaniard cast on him a ferocious glance, saying:

"Young man, you must not speak so lightly of things you know nothing about."

"Do you mean to pretend to persuade me to believe in ghosts?" answered the young man contemptuously.

"Perhaps," replied the Spaniard, "if you had the courage to make the trial."

My neighbor bounded angrily from his seat; but he composed himself instantly, saying, calmly:

"You would have to pay dearly for this impertinence if it was not that of a fool."

"That of a fool!" cried the Spaniard, leaping to his feet. "Well," he added, bringing his fist down on the table, and flinging thereon a large leathern purse; "see! here are five thousand francs, which I am content to lose, if, in one hour from this time, I do not show you the ghost of any of your deceased friends that you choose to name, no matter how long he may be dead; and, if, after having recognized him, you have the courage to permit him to lay his lips against yours."

The Spaniard had such a terrible air, as he said this, that we all started. My neighbor alone preserved his disdainful and mocking smile.

"You will do that, will you?" he answered.

"Yes; and I will stake these five thousand francs on the event, if you will wager a like sum. If I fail, I lose; if you are vanquished, I win."

The young man remained silent for a moment, the said gaily:

"Five thousand francs, most worthy magician, is more than a poor student ever possesses. But if you will make the bet a hundred francs, I am your man."

The Spaniard took back his purse in silence; then he said in a contemptuous tone,

"Ah, you back out, my little braggadocio!"

"I back out!" cried my neighbor. "Ah, if I had the five thousand francs you would see whether I would back out or not!"

"I could not resist a sudden temptation that seized me.

"Here's a quarter of the bet," I cried, putting the money on the table. "I will go shares with you, young man."

I had scarcely done this, when five or six persons round the table, attracted as I was by the singularity of the challenge, offered to take shares; and in a very few moments the sum required by the Spaniard was made up. This last seemed so sure of his taunt, that he gave of the bet to the young student, and began to make his preparation for the trial.

[To be concluded.]

STEALING ON A LARGE SCALE.—The whole amount of public funds belonging to the state of Illinois, now missing, but which have been traced to the hands of the late democratic governor of that state, Joel A. Matteson, is $428,960. Matteson is now using a large percentage of his ill-gotten gains, it is said, to carry Illinois for Douglas, and to elect a democratic legislature.

MISS SHEEHAN & CO.,

WOULD respectfully announce to the ladies of Janesville and vicinity that she will open, for inspection, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May the 17th, 18th and 19th, 1860, a choice and select assortment of

MILLINERY GOODS, &C.

The stock embraces everything that is new, novel and fashionable in the market, such as as Ribbons, Ruches, French and American Flowers in every color, style and price. Ladies Dress Caps, in endless variety. Misses' Bonnets, Flats and Riding Hats, all prices, in fact every article which constitutes a First Class Millinery Establishment may be found here, all of which I will sell at very low prices, being enabled to do so from the fact that I buy my goods for cash from the best houses, both in New York and Chicago.

Miss Sheehan & Co. feel confident, from the long experience in the business in all its various branches which we have had, together with every facility for buying, that she cannot fail to suit the most fastidious, both in style, durability, elegance and cheapness.

Ladies in want of a fashionable Bonnet will find it to their interest to give us a call before buying elsewhere.
Respectfully submitted,
MISS SHEEHAN & CO.
Janesville, May 8th, 1860.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
AND BUILDERS.
Important Discoveries and New Arrangements!

THE subscriber has discovered upon his premises a splendid

QUARRY OF FREESTONE,

which promises to surpass anything yet found in the state, as well as add to the many already developed resources of our city,

A Beautiful, Cheap and Durable Building Material,

He has made arrangements to work this, together with the justly celebrated

Monterey Lime Stone Quarry,

on a scale equal to the demands of our enterprising citizens, and in order to accommodate his numerous customers, he has made arrangements to keep constantly on hand a large supply of

ATHENS MARBLE

(or Chicago stone.) He is now fitting up extensive saw and scouring mills, and other machinery necessary for working the same, at a great reduction from former prices.

He also wishes to call attention to the fact that sound cutting or dimension stone can only be found at great distances from the surface, and that the Monterey Quarry is the only one in this county that has been worked far enough to reach those formations that are imperishable when exposed to the action of air and frost.

He is also supplying his Quarry with Derricks to facilitate the handling and loading large stone, and is fitting up expensive wagons, carts and trucks, rigged with the most approved appliances for moving and delivering dimension stone of any size, from two to thirty feet square, and from six to twenty inches thick, or any required length up to one hundred feet, to any part of the city or on board of the cars.

He is prepared to furnish

Cut Stone
of every description.
PLAIN, MOULDED, CARVED OR POLISHED FLAGGIN
of any required dimension.
Curbing, Paving, Ruble and Coursing

stone of the best quality in the state, all of which will be delivered at his Quarries or any part of the city, to suit purchasers.

In conclusion, he begs to assure the public that from the superior quality of his materials, and facilities for furnishing, he can and will make it to their interests to patronize the Monterey Quarries.

All Orders from the city or country will be promptly attended to.

The Inconsistences of Douglas.

The inconsistencies practiced by Douglas in his public career, are so palpable that it is strange that he has any position at all as a candidate. Take his changes upon one subject, that of the ever present and always talked about principle—the right of the people of a territory to introduce or exclude slavery, as they please, in a territorry:

At Freeport in Aug. 1858, he declared distinctly in favor of the right of the people to exclude slavery from a territory by "unfriendly legislation." In November of the same year, he said at Memphis, that "there was no power to prevent a southern man from going into the territories, with his slaves more than a northern man," and at New Orleans, in December following, he declared in substance the same thing, and that "slaves are recognized as property, and placed upon an equal footing with all other property."

In the senate on the 23d of February, 1859, he reiterated the same sentiment, and added that "there is just as much obligation on the part of the part of the territorial legislature to protect slaves as every other species of property, as there is to protect horses, cattle, dry goods, liquors," &c. —Cong. Globe, 1858–9, page 1256.

And yet, after reiterating this setiment in various ways and at different times; and after acknowledging that the decision of the supreme court, on this subject, is "an authoritative exposition of the constitution," and after acknowledging that the Wickliffe resolution, adopted as a part of the platform at Baltimore "is a faithful embodiment of the principles of the democratic party!"—he tells us at Clifton Springs, New York, the other day, that he "holds that the people of a territory, may introduce, exclude, abolish or regulate slavery, just as they please!"—Here he gets back to his position at Freeport, after asserting roundly and pointedly, for two years that he held an entirely different doctrine.

This specimen of inconsistency is only equalled by his advocating, all his life! the doctrines of free trade, and then in a recent speech in Pennsylvania, coming squarely out for a protective tariff!

Is it possible that a man so wavering and inconsistent in his principles can be a statesman fit to guide the destinies of the nation?

That's Enough.

While Larrabee was fulminating his anathemas at the republicans at a recent Democratic gathering at Menasha, an intelligent, stalwart Irishman interrupted him with a wish to ask him a question.

Larrabee—And what do you want, my friend?

Irishman—Didn't you vote for a Know Nothing for speaker, Judge Larrabee?

Larrabee—I did, and would do so a hundred times rather than see a black republican elected.

Irishman—Then you voted for a Know Nothing, did you?

Larrabee—Yes.

Irishman—That's enough! And turning to the crowd, he said, "Boys, we have no further business here," and left the meeting followed by about twenty-five of the honest sons of Erin, who scorn a Know Nothing, even though he wear the livery of a Democrat.—State Journal.

Warned by the result of this admission, Larrabee charged the editor of the Watertown Republican with a lie because he asserted in his paper the fact what Larrabee admitted at Menasha, and got into "a muss" with him in a public meeting in Watertown on account of it, denying that Mr. Smith, for whom he voted for Speaker was a Know Nothing. Newspapers are ugly customers for the little dodger.

☞ Walker, the filibuster, has not been shot. He has made his appearance, says the Chicago Tribune, in New Orleans, "with no more holes in his skin than are essential."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Anglo Saxon arrived at Quebec yesterday, bringing Liverpool dates to the 13th. Wheat is reported at full prices, and corn firm.

Sardinian troops had entered the states of the church to the number of 50,000.—Pesora and Oriveto garrisoned by Germans had been taken and the prisoners sent to Turin.

The Pope's commander-in-chief had concentrated his army at Ancona. Several powers had protested against the entry of the Sardinians into the states of the Church as an attack upon international rights.—Russia and Prussia protested in the strongest terms, but would take no other steps.

Cavour had issued a note explaining the new attitude of Sardinia.

It was asserted that the French army at Rome will be increased to 10,000 men.

A Paris telegram to the London Post, dated Wednesday night, says the Piedmontese forces are marching rapidly on Lamoricierre's army and an engagement is expected to take place to-morrow. The Emperor and the French Government has used every exertion to prevent an invasion of the Roman states. The relations of France and Piedmont are critical.

The Times says that Victor Emannel finds a formiable competitor in Garribaldi, whose success appears sufficient to overcome any resistance that can be made by the States of the Church, and which brings him into collision with the Austrian power in Venice. Piedmont must make herself mistress of the revolution, or give up the lead, and follow. There is reason to believe that the Emperor Napoleon sees things from this point of view, and that no danger need be apprehended from France.

The English attacking party at Martard, New Zealand, consisted of 347 men. The natives lay down on the ground until the men were close upon them, when they sprang up, fired their double barrel guns, and met the bayonet charge of their adversaries with the tomahawk, keeping up a hand-to-hand fight. The retreat of the English was so urgent that their dead and a few of the wounded were left on the battle field. It is also reported that the natives took one gun. Great complaints are made against Col. Gould, the commander of the attacking party, for not calling to his aid an additional force, which was said to be in his reach.

It was reported that France has refused to make the slightest concession to Switzerland in the Savoy affair. Switzerland therefore persists more than ever in considering the question one for the decision of Europe.

☞ The Racine Advocate notices an important political change in Racine county. George Q. Erskine, at a republican meeting in the 2d assembly district, renounced "democracy" and declared in favor of the republican party. The Advocate says—"Among the young and hard working democracy of Racine county, this gentleman has held a prominent place during the past four or five years, but we are happy to announce the fact that he holds it no longer. He has turned his back upon the fallacies and deceits of modern democracy, and henceforth will do battle for the people and "Honest Old Abe."

"We could name several other wheel horses of the "young democracy" whom we expect to welcome to the republican camp before the great battle in November."

☞ Mr. Reymert, the democratic candidate for congress takes the Garrison position on the subject of slavery. He says:

"I am, and always have been against slavery in the United States, and its extension into new territories."

We don't see how our neighbors of the Democrat can support him, while he manifests such hostility to slavery in the States. How Reymert can be opposed to its extension into the territories and support Douglas, who don't care whether it is voted up or down, and who is willing to leave the decision of that question to the supreme court and afterwards to the people, is not very clear.

We suspect that Mr. Reymert is attempting to play the game of two-faced Hobart; who declared that he was a better free-soiler than the republicans, while he continued to sustain Buchanan's administration. He will probably succeed just about as that gentleman did.

☞ The Bell and Everett party have made a full nomination in Massachusetts.

☞ Lord Renfrew and suite arrived at St. Louis yesterday. There was a crowd of some 4,000 near the place of landing, but no inconvenience was experienced in passing rapidly from the boat to a carriage, whence his highness was driven to Barnum's Hotel. The Prince has expressed himself highly pleased with his tour thus far through the United States.

A GOOD SIXTEEN MONTH'S WORK.—Bayard Taylor, in a farewell article to the N. Y. Mercury, thus sums up his labor for the past sixteen months:—"Two hundred and fifty lectures, thirty thousand miles of travel, forty-eight Mercury articles, two books published, and one house built."

"OUR LARRABEE" ON THE STUMP.—We are informed that the meeting at Mayville last Thursday, held by appointment of Judge Larrabee, went off in style somewhat similar to that at Waupun on the 8th. At the hour for speaking to commence there were fourteen democrats in the room! Our Elijah had occasion just then to go out for a glass of beer, and the audience did not hear his speech. Considering that Mayville is a strong democratic section, this fizzle is full of significance.

LARRABEE IN HOT WATER.

From individuals present we have received an account of the meeting in Watertown last Friday evening, which was held for the benefit of Judge Larrabee. The little joker found himself in a very uncomfortable position in attempting to explain his vote for a Know Nothing speaker. In asking who made such a charge against him, he was answered by one of the delegates in convention which nominated him, who told him plainly, "I say, Charly Larrabee that you voted for a Know Nothing and for that reason, I shall not vote for you as a member of Congress." The delegate was a Mr. Moore of Watertown, and he added that he was a Douglas man in earnest and should vote for Douglas and Sloan.—Beaver Dam Citizen.

ALLEGED DEFALCATION OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.—A dispatch from Washington, D. C., (says the Baltimore Sun,) states that the accounts of Brigham Young, as ex officio superintendent of Indian affairs in Utah, have just undergone a long and searching scrutiny, and that show he is a defaulter to the Government to a considerable extent. A special agent has accordingly been dispatched to Utah to undertake the recovery of the money.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

TREMONT HOUSE,
CHICAGO, Sept. 25th, 1860.

EDS. GAZETTE.—In these fast times—these days of travel by steam, and almost by lightning, the traveler can have very little opportunity to take "notes by the way." A few years ago, when we journeyed by slow stages, the tourist enjoyed good opportunities of seeing and being seen, and could think and write as much as he pleased. Now the case is different. On leaving home for a journey of even a thousand miles, one can scarcely collect his thoughts and screw them up to the sticking point, before he is at the end of his journey; so that, even if he could steadily see any thing on his flying tour, he has opportunity to give it no more than a mere passing attention. On these swift lines of travel the only persons who can "take notes" to advantage are the railroad agents, steamboat captains, hotel-keepers, etc. They have learned how to do this thing, and, generally speaking, they do it admirably. I make this remark in no complaining spirit. Just now I have no fault to find with any body. I have been treated quite as well as I deserve, no doubt, perhaps, better. But really, the way the loose change will leak out of one's pocket when he goes from home, is just the easiest way imaginable, however close and strict his caution and economy. If any man has a surplus of means, and is benevolently desirous of getting rid of it pro bono publico, he has only to travel a few weeks, and see the lions, to have his wish fully realized.

Chicago seems to be steadily recovering from the depressing influences that have weighed heavily upon all our western towns for the past three years. On passing thro' her streets I notice occasionally the ominous words "to let" on the bolted doors.—But I noticed them far more frequently two years ago. Since then there has been a wonderful improvement in business matters. The indications of a growing prosperity are quite apparent. Seventeen years ago I made this city my home for the space of eight or ten months. Chicago then, compared with what it is to-day, was but a village. Now, viewing it from the court house tower, as I did in company with some friends from Emerald Grove, on this beautiful September morning, I find it stretching away for miles in every direction, save into the lake—to the north, to the south, and to the west. Chicago must be a great city—this, if I am a true prophet, is "manifest destiny." In no spirit of narrowness would I deny to her the elements of future greatness. And for one, I rejoice in her growth. If she becomes in process of time something more than a little giant (perhaps I should say giantess), I would have no tears of envy or jealousy to shed on that account. The world is wide—the northwest is no "pent-up Utica." There is room for Chicago, and still a little to spare. We, of Wisconsin, are interested of course in our own commercial emporium; and I deem it but just that we give to her our best wishes, and, so far as she proves herself worthy of them, our best efforts. And I doubt not she is disposed to do the fair thing. Milwaukee has commercial power and influence, and may so wield them that she will be regardee as no mean competitor with Chicago for the rapidly increasing trade and traffic of the northwest. Indeed the strong beating of her pulse of trade is unquestionably felt here even now. Let this competition continue—only let it be characterised by the utmost fairness. I have always deprecated this war of towns and cities when a narrow and contemptible jealousy has been at the bottom of it. But opposition, or competition conducted in a way to live and let live, is the life of business. It is a glorious thing for the northwest—for Wisconsin at least, that on the waters that line her eastern boundary are two great commercial centres ready always to compete for her great and growing business. Illinois is a great state; but, considering her age, Wisconsin is not a whit behind her. But I may as well stop here, for this theme seems to be growing on my hands.

I came to this city yesterday, and expect to remain till Friday morning. I shall try to take a peep into the Tribune office to-morrow. Concerning my business here, and other matters, more anon.

Faithfully yours, — W. —

"THE FORCE OF FOLLY COULD NO FURTHER GO."—A Parisian genius has just invented a musical petticoat! By the aid of scientific mechanism, the crinoline is rid of all springs, hoops, bolts, pivots, &c., and is inflated, like a life-preserver, the air furnishing any amount of distension required, to a given circumference say a quarter of a mile. The sublime feature of the invention is this: The elegant wearer need only touch a spring, arranged to communicate with the pocket of her dress, and the air in her skirt sets in motion a musical attachment not unlike a bird-organ, playing a variety of tunes, from the gems of the operas to a nursery lullaby. The inventor confidently declares that the ballroom orchestras may be entirely dispensed with in future; the ladies wearing his "musical petticoat" can provide themselves with waltzes, quadrilles and polkas to their hearts' content.

WM. E. STRONG INJURED.—We regret to learn that this gentleman, who left this city a week since to enter the Law Schools at Cambridge, Mass. was severely injured, by falling, while practicing gymnastic exercises at North Andover, where he was visiting his friends. He broke one or two of his ribs and received some pretty severe bruises by the fall, but we believe none that were considered dangerous. We shall be glad to hear of his perfect recovery.—Racine Advocate.

☞ The following from Harper's Magazine, is appropriate to the times:

Polite Candidate.—Madam, is your husband about?

Lady.—Yes, sir. He has gone out to haul away a dead dog, and will be back directly.

Candidate.—Sheep killing dog, I reckon madam?

Fierce-Spoken Urchin.—No, sir—jest barked himself to death at candidates—so pap said.

A HUGE STRAW.—There are one hundred and three Germans in this township who have declared their intention to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, who voted in 1856 for Buchanan; making a gain of two hundred and six for the republican ticket.—Lafayette Journal, 11th.

Telegraphic

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE, Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27th.

The steamship Persia from Liverpool, 15th, via Queenstown, 16th has arrived. Italian affairs unchanged. The French minister had left Turin. The King of Naples had gone to Spain.

LIVERPOOL.—The weather had been favorable for crops, but it again became boisterous on Friday. Flour quiet and steady. Wheat firm; corn quiet but rather firmer.

LONDON.—Harvest making rapid progress and weather rather more favorable.

Napoleon reached Agacato; the French forces at Rome are to be increased by two regiments. Naples was tranquil. Garabaldi exchanged interviews with the English admiral and ambassador.

Sardinian troops had disembarked at Naples by request of Garabaldi who transferred the Neapolitan fleet to Sardinia. Gen. Fauti was appointed commander-in-chief.

Lomoriciere had concetrated his troops at Ancona. The French minister had withdrawn from Turin. The business of the legation will be conducted by the secretary. Purunguay had been declared in a state of siege and the inhabitants threatened with the direst penalties for the merest fracture of the telegraph wires. Sardinian memorandum in defence of the course adopted is published. The Emperor of Austria gave a grand banquet in honor of the emperor of Russia's birth day.

LATEST VIA QUEENSTOWN.

TURIN, Sept. 15.

Italian journals express regret at the recall of the French ambassador. Naples letters state that very earnest, popular demonstrations are taking place. Many priests had fraternized with the people. The enrollment of volunteers was ordered.

Garabaldi declared that he would proclaim the annexation of Naples to Piedmont from the summit of the Quanernal, where all the Italians will be united in one national banquet; a reactionary movement had transpired with fatal conflicts.

Ariono and Garabaldi were marching there.

ROME, Sept. 15.

The tri-color was hoisted, but it is said the people did not support the intended demonstration. The alleged order of Lomoriere for pillage in case of insurrection is confirmed.

PARIS, Sept. 15.

The Constitutional says the recall of the ambassabor from Turin is to express disapproval of the course of Sardinia but is far from rapture. Perugay calls aloud for vengeance, though late she will have it. A strong Piedmont corps is keeping watch of the movements of the Austrians.

LONDON, Sept. 15.

Two ships have arrived with £300,000 of Australian gold. The Persia passed the America on the 23.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

The official despatches from Peru announce that the Peruvian government had made a proposition to our minister for the settlement of all existing difficulties between the two governments.

Solara Alvar who recently absconded from Havana with a million and a quarter dollars belonging to the creditors and Panol of Madrid, landed from an open boat recently at Key West.

John Casterna distiller at Huntington and two sons were suffocated on Tuesday while repairing their still.

The city Republicans yesterday nominated Ames J. Williamson editor of the despatch in 3d Congregational district, Wm. Wall, Esq. mayor of Williamsburg in the 5th, Augustus J. Dow in the 7th, Abraham Wakeman in the 8th. The Breckinridgers in the latter district nominated Ex-Sheriff Willets.

CINCINNATI 27th.

Judge Douglas left Columbus yesterday by a special train for Cincinnati, the greatest enthusiasm was displayed along the route and points where the train stopped, the addition of 22 cars was made to the train at Xenia which arriqed at Dayton at 12 o'clock, Mr. Douglas was welcomed by a tremendous crowd, he proceeded to the Court house where he made a speech of about 10 minutes and immediately left for Hamilton, along the route from Dayton to Hamilton there was enthusiastic receptions every where.

MADISON, Sept. 27, 3 o'clock P. M.

The state fair grounds are crowded with a large attendance. It is estimated that there are between 15 and 20,000 people on the grounds. The fair is a perfect success.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 26.

The Executive committees of both wings of the Democracy meet here on the 5th of October next and will endeavor to effect a fusion. The Enquirer hopes that the union of the two wings will be effected by the withdrawal of Mr. Douglas, but fear, that this proposition comes too late.

Mr. Yancy addresses the National Democracy on Monday next.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.

A dispatch to the World says that Government has ordered 17,000 stand of arms to Fort Moultrie, S. C.

A dead body washed ashore at Long Island has been identified as that of Captain Leete, of the oyster sloop Spray, supposed murdered by Jackalow, the Chinese pirate.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26.

The Douglas and Breckinridge parties held meeting's here last night. During the speech of Judge Hulleberton at the Breckinridge gathering, an attempt was made by the Douglas men, to break up the meeting. During the melee, two Breckinridge men were slightly stabbed. The Bulletin calls upon members of the party to be prepared for the future, to fight, shoot or arrest in the maintenance of their privileges.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

Flour market 5a10c better—sales 18,500 bbls 5,15a5,35 super state; 5,45a5,60 extra state; 5,19a5,35 super western; 5,45a5,75 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1a3c better with moderate export demand—sales 150,000 bushels at 1,18a1,-23½ for Chicago spring.

MILWUKEE, Sept. 27.

The wheat market opened with an easier feeling and sales were freely made at 91c in store, and 92c for delivered. A good shipping demand exists as there are several vessels to fill up. Buyers and sellers readily agreed at these rates. Extra was in fair demand at previous rates. Flour market quiet and without change.

ON HIS BELLY.—J. D. Reymert, the man who is running for Congress against Hanchett in the second District—a man who does not hesitate to hold office at the hands of an administration which he professes to scorn and despise—has published a circular to his Norwegian countrymen, in which he declares himself to be an Abolitionist of the first water. * *

We have understood it to be the wish of the National Democracy not to nominate candidates for Congress in this State, but to make choice between the two evils placed before them. The dose in the 2d District, however, is entirely too nauseating, and we see no other way for the Democracy of that district, than to nominate and vote for a candidate of their own.—Mil. Enquirer (Breckinridge.)

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

RETURNED TO CHICAGO.—Mrs. Senator Douglas has returned to Chicago, and is stopping at the Tremont House. The Senator still tarries in Ohio.

NOMINATIONS.—Wm. B. Ogden has been nominated by the republicans of Chicago, for their state senate. For the legislature they have nominated for the 56th district, J. Y. Scammon and Wm. H. Brown, and for the 57th district, Homer Wilmarth and S. M. Wilson.

At a recent Lincoln demonstration in Wheeling, as the German Wide Awakes were returning to their quarter near the Custom House, a gang of democratic rowdies rushed up and seized a flag belonging to the company and destroyed it.

The earnings of the Milwaukee & Mississippi railroad for the month of August were $61,041 61, being an increase over the corresponding month of last year of $11,655,31.

Oliver Johnson, Editor of the New York anti-slavery Standard, having been summoned as a juror the other day, sent a note to the court asking to be excused, on the ground that he was adjudged to be "crazy," being the editor of a paper which asserted the constitution to be a covenant with death and an agreement with hell. The court, however, thought that there was a little too much method in Mr. Johnson's madness, and refused to let him off.

A correspondent of the Syracuse Journal says that Douglas was blackguard enough to apply the epithet "pimp" to a gentleman who asked him a civil question, during his speech at Clifton Springs.

The sum of $200 was offered a day or two since in New York for a couple of tickets to the Prince of Wales' ball. A few days previous a single ticket was sold for $25.

A reviewer in the Atlantic Monthly speaks of certain writers of popular newspaper stories as having obtained a "world wide obscurity."

Mrs. Dwight, the wife of the editor of Dwight's Journal of Music, and a lady of rare musical attainments, died in Boston last week.

Two blacksmiths in Brooklyn, N. Y., had a duel with sledge-hammers the other day, and both were fatally injured.

Judge John C. Richardson, of the supreme court of Missouri, died on Friday, at St. Louis, of congestive chills.

The State Journal says that Gov. Randall goes to Indiana next week to speak in behalf of the Republican cause in that state.

The Buffalo express of Saturday says "the Hon. Butler G. Noble, Lieut. Gov. of Wisconsin, is in town, the guest of his cousin, Chas. E. Noble, agent of the Michigan Central Railroad at this point."

The Cincinnati Post, the only Bell paper in Ohio, has been discontinued for want of support.

FURNITURE STORE!
N. SWAGER,

LATE of the firm of L. Moses & Co., would announce to the citizens of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties that he has made a large addition to his former stock of which, for beauty, style and cheapness cannot be surpassed by any competitor west of New York and Boston. Among my numerous articles I will only mention Tete a Tete Sofas, Easy Chairs, Sofa Chairs, Rocking and Sewing Chairs, Spring and Bed Lounges, Center Tables with Marble and Mahogany tops, Card Tables, Teapoy, Quartets and Whatnots, Looking Glasses with Rosewood, Gilt and Mahogany Frames, Looking Glass Plates of all sizes, Secretaries and Bureaus of Mahogany and Blackwalnut, Extension, Dinning, Breakfast and Kitchen Tables, Washstands, Washstand Bureaus, Enclosed Washstands and Cinque Wash- Cane Seat, Flag Seat and Wooden Seat Chairs of every description, Bedsteads of all kinds, Mattrasses and Pillows of Hair and Feathers.

Parlor and Common Furniture,

I would call the attention to my exclusive right for Rock county to manufacture and sell the

Self-Adjusting Spring Bed,

(Robinson's patent) and Bed Bottom Spring Bed, (patented in 1859 by Benjamin F. S. Monroe of Utica, N. Y.) I am prepared to furnish these excellent and best articles now in use in that line, they are much cheaper and more durable than the ordinary spring bed, and they have received premiums at different fairs in the eastern states and are now used in the principal hotels in all the large cities.

N. B.—As I buy my stock, materials, &c., direct from the manufacturers and importers, for Cash, I am enabled to sell cheaper than any establishment in the furniture line west of New York and Boston.

COFFINS of all the latest New York and Chicago styles, of all sizes, and trimmed in every variety of style, constantly on hand.

Repairing and upholstering of every kind done on short notice and in the best manner.

Particular attention will be given to work ordered at this establishment. As I have had twenty years experience in manufacturing furniture, and have been for the last five years a partner in the firm of L. Moses & Co., all persons wishing anything in my line are requested to give me a call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stirring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,
Proprietor of the Original Young America
CLOTHING HOUSE,

adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the

Petty Slop Shops

in the land. From the fact that the Original

Young America Clothing House

has held for the last

EIGHT YEARS

the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the

Cheapest Establishment

of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.

Oldest Clothing House in the City

The People of Rock County

are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce

A BOGUS LAW

upon them, to get them to purchase their

Fall and Winter Clothing

from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the

Largest and Best Stock of Clothing

of all kinds, including the finest

CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,

and the best variety of

BEAVER OVERCOATS!

ever brought to the west. Also,

Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,

of every description, with

Pants and Vests

to match, as well as any quantity of

Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerciefs, Stocks, Under Shirts,

and every article of

Wearing Apparrel

that man can want.

If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the

Original Young America Clothing House

does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

Hats and Caps

down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"

meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.

His Merchant Tailoring Department

is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,

MR. A. B. McLEAN,

who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

CHEAP CLOTHING,

to the

Original Young America Clothing House

AT THE OLD PLACE IN

MYERS' BLOCK,

next door south of L. R. Carswell's Grocery Store.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH ACADEMY.
Located at Sauk City, Wisconsin.
H. J. TURNER, A. M., PRINCIPAL.
5th Academic Year.

THIS Institution is strictly a Family Boarding School, and is under the immediate supervision of Prof. TURNER, formerly of Utica, N. Y. Prof. Turner's long experience as a teacher, the beautiful and ample playgrounds attached to his residence and Academy, and their healthful position, recommend them to the parents who should wish to confide their children to the care of Prof. Turner, who will superintend the studies of the Institution, and give his particular attention to the modern languages. The French, being the language of the family, will be the language of the Institution.—German and Spanish are also written and spoken. Prof. Turner will guarantee that, independent of their other studies, his pupils will, at the close of the sholastic year, speak and write the French language. When pupils are far enough advanced in French, instruction will be given in Spanish or Italian.

Mrs. Turner will devote her attention to the Family Department; her kindness and long exderience qualify her well to discharge the difficult duties of that station, and she will spare no efforts to secure the comfort of all confided to her care.

The next term of the Institution commences the first day of October. For circulars, or further particulars, address, PROF. H. J. TURNER,

The Inconsistences of Douglas.

The inconsistencies practiced by Douglas in his public career, are so palpable that it is strange that he has any position at all as a candidate. Take his changes upon one subject, that of the ever present and always talked about principle—the right of the people of a territory to introduce or exclude slavery, as they please, in a territorry:

At Freeport in Aug. 1858, he declared distinctly in favor of the right of the people to exclude slavery from a territory by "unfriendly legislation." In November of the same year, he said at Memphis, that "there was no power to prevent a southern man from going into the territories, with his slaves more than a northern man," and at New Orleans, in December following, he declared in substance the same thing, and that "slaves are recognized as property, and placed upon an equal footing with all other property."

In the senate on the 23d of February, 1859, he reiterated the same sentiment, and added that "there is just as much obligation on the part of the part of the territorial legislature to protect slaves as every other species of property, as there is to protect horses, cattle, dry goods, liquors," &c. —Cong. Globe, 1858-9, page 1256.

And yet, after reiterating this setiment in various ways and at different times; and after acknowledging that the decision of the supreme court, on this subject, is "an authoritative exposition of the constitution," and after acknowledging that the Wickliffe resolution, adopted as a part of the platform at Baltimore "is a faithful embodiment of the principles of the democratic party"—he tells us at Clifton Springs, New York, the other day, that he "holds that the people of a territory, may introduce, exclude, abolish or regulate slavery, just as they please!"—Here he gets back to his position at Freeport, after asserting roundly and pointedly, for two years that he held an entirely different doctrine.

This specimen of inconsistency is only equalled by his advocating, all his life, the doctrines of free trade, and then in a recent speech in Pennsylvania, coming squarely out for a protective tariff!

Is it possible that a man so wavering and inconsistent in his principles can be a statesman fit to guide the destinies of the nation?

That's Enough.

While Larrabee was fulminating his anathemas at the republicans at a recent Democratic gathering at Menasha, an intelligent, stalwart Irishman interrupted him with a wish to ask him a question.

Larrabee—And what do you want, my friend?

Irishman—Didn't you vote for a Know Nothing for speaker, Judge Larrabee?

Larrabee—I did, and would do so a hundred times rather than see a black republican elected.

Irishman—Then you voted for a Know Nothing, did you?

Larrabee—Yes.

Irishman—That's enough! And turning to the crowd, he said, "Boys, we have no farther business here," and left the meeting followed by about twenty-five of the honest sons of Erin, who scorn a Know Nothing, even though he wear the livery of a Democrat.—State Journal.

Warned by the result of this admission, Larrabee charged the editor of the Watertown Republican with a lie because he asserted in his paper the fact what Larrabee admitted at Menasha, and got into "a muss" with him in a public meeting in Watertown on account of it, denying that Mr. Smith, for whom he voted for Speaker was a Know Nothing. Newspapers are ugly customers for the little dodger.

☞ Walker, the filibuster, has not been shot. He has made his appearance, says the Chicago Tribune, in New Orleans, "with no more holes in his skin than are essential."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Anglo Saxon arrived at Quebec yesterday, bringing Liverpool dates to the 13th. Wheat is reported at full prices, and corn firm.

Sardinian troops had entered the states of the church to the number of 50,000.—Pesora and Oriveto garrisoned by Germans had been taken and the prisoners sent to Turin.

The Pope's commander-in-chief had concentrated his army at Ancona. Several powers had protested against the entry of the Sardinians into the states of the Church as an attack upon international rights.—Russia and Prussia protested in the strongest terms, but would take no other steps.

Cavour had issued a note explaining the new attitude of Sardinia.

It was asserted that the French army at Rome will be increased to 10,000 men.

A Paris telegram to the London Post, dated Wednesday night, says the Piedmontese forces are marching rapidly on Lamoricierre's army and an engagement is expected to take place to-morrow. The Emperor and the French Government has used every exertion to prevent an invasion of the Roman states. The relations of France and Piedmont are critical.

The Times says that Victor Emanuel finds a formiable competitor in Garribaldi, whose success appears sufficient to overcome any resistance that can be made by the States of the Church, and which brings him into collision with the Austrian power in Venice. Piedmont must make herself mistress of the revolution, or give up the lead, and follow. There is reason to believe that the Emperor Napoleon sees things from this point of view, and that no danger need be apprehended from France.

The English attacking party at Martard, New Zealand, consisted of 347 men. The natives lay down on the ground until the men were close upon them, when they sprang up, fired their double barrel guns, and met the bayonet charge of their adversaries with the tomahawk, keeping up a hand-to-hand fight. The retreat of the English was so urgent that their dead and a few of the wounded were left on the battle field. It is also reported that the natives took one gun. Great complaints are made against Col. Gould, the commander of the attacking party, for not calling to his aid an additional force, which was said to be in his reach.

It was reported that France has refused to make the slightest concession to Switzerland in the Savoy affair. Switzerland therefore persists more than ever in considering the question one for the decision of Europe.

☞ The Racine Advocate notices an important political change in Racine county. George Q. Erskine, at a republican meeting in the 2d assembly district, renounced "democracy" and declared in favor of the republican party. The Advocate says—"Among the young and hard working democracy of Racine county, this gentleman has held a prominent place during the past four or five years, but we are happy to announce the fact that he holds it no longer. He has turned his back upon the fallacies and deceits of modern democracy, and henceforth will do battle for the people and "Honest Old Abe."

"We could name several other wheel horses of the "young democracy" whom we expect to welcome to the republican camp before the great battle in November."

☞ Mr. Reymert, the democratic candidate for congress takes the Garrison position on the subject of slavery. He says:

"I am, and always have been against slavery in the United States, and its extension into new territories."

We don't see how our neighbors of the Democrat can support him, while he manifests such hostility to slavery in the States. How Reymert can be opposed to its extension into the territories and support Douglas, who don't care whether it is voted up or down, and who is willing to leave the decision of that question to the supreme court and afterwards to the people, is not very clear.

We suspect that Mr. Reymert is attempting to play the game of two-faced Hobart, who declared that he was a better free-soiler than the republicans, while he continued to sustain Buchanan's administration. He will probably succeed just about as that gentleman did.

☞ The Bell and Everett party have made a full nomination in Massachusetts.

☞ Lord Renfrew and suite arrived at St. Louis yesterday. There was a crowd of some 4,000 near the place of landing, but no inconvenience was experienced in passing rapidly from the boat to a carriage, whence his highness was driven to Barnum's Hotel. The Prince has expressed himself highly pleased with his tour thus far through the United States.

A GOOD SIXTEEN MONTH'S WORK.—Bayard Taylor, in a farewell article to the N. Y. Mercury, thus sums up his labor for the past sixteen months:—"Two hundred and fifty lectures, thirty thousand miles of travel, forty-eight Mercury articles, two books published, and one house built."

"OUR LARRABEE" ON THE STUMP.—We are informed that the meeting at Mayville last Thursday, held by appointment of Judge Larrabee, went off in style somewhat similar to that at Waupun on the 8th. At the hour for speaking to commence there were fourteen democrats in the room! Our Elijah had occasion just then to go out for a glass of beer, and the audience did not hear his speech. Considering that Mayville is a strong democratic section, this fizzle is full of significance.

LARRABEE IN HOT WATER.

From individuals present we have received an account of the meeting in Watertown last Friday evening, which was held for the benefit of Judge Larrabee. The little joker found himself in a very uncomfortable position in attempting to explain his vote for a Know Nothing speaker. In asking who made such a charge against him, he was answered by one of the delegates in convention which nominated him, who told him plainly, "I say, Charly Larrabee that you voted for a Know Nothing and for that reason, I shall not vote for you as a member of Congress." The delegate was a Mr. Moore of Watertown, and he added that he was a Douglas man in earnest and should vote for Douglas and Sloan.—Beaver Dam Citizen.

ALLEGED DEFALCATION OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.—A dispatch from Washington, D. C., (says the Baltimore Sun,) states that the accounts of Brigham Young, as ex officio superintendent of Indian affairs in Utah, have just undergone a long and searching scrutiny, and that show he is a defaulter to the Government to a considerable extent. A special agent has accordingly been dispatched to Utah to undertake the recovery of the money.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

TREMONT HOUSE,
CHICAGO, Sept. 25th, 1860.

EDS. GAZETTE.—In these fast times—these days of travel by steam, and almost by lightning, the traveler can have very little opportunity to take "notes by the way." A few years ago, when we journeyed by slow stages, the tourist enjoyed good opportunities of seeing and being seen, and could think and write as much as he pleased. Now the case is different. On leaving home for a journey of even a thousand miles, one can scarcely collect his thoughts and screw them up to the sticking point, before he is at the end of his journey; so that, even if he could steadily see any thing on his flying tour, he has opportunity to give it no more than a mere passing attention. On these swift lines of travel the only persons who can "take notes" to advantage are the railroad agents, steamboat captains, hotel-keepers, etc. They have learned how to do this thing, and, generally speaking, they do it admirably. I make this remark in no complaining spirit. Just now I have no fault to find with any body. I have been treated quite as well as I deserve, no doubt, perhaps, better. But really, the way the loose change will leak out of one's pocket when he goes from home, is just the easiest way imaginable, however close and strict his caution and economy. If any man has a surplus of means, and is benevolently desirous of getting rid of it pro bono publico, he has only to travel a few weeks, and see the lions, to have his wish fully realized.

Chicago seems to be steadily recovering from the depressing influences that have weighed heavily upon all our western towns for the past three years. On passing thro' her streets I notice occasionally the ominous words "to let" on the bolted doors.—But I noticed them far more frequently two years ago. Since then there has been a wonderful improvement in business matters. The indications of a growing prosperity are quite apparent. Seventeen years ago I made this city my home for the space of eight or ten months. Chicago then, compared with what it is to day, was but a village. Now, viewing it from the court house tower, as I did in company with some friends from Emerald Grove, on this beautiful September morning, I find it stretching away for miles in every direction, save into the lake—to the north, to the south, and to the west. Chicago must be a great city—this, if I am a true prophet, is "manifest destiny." In no spirit of narrowness would I deny to her the elements of future greatness. And for one, I rejoice in her growth. If she becomes in process of time something more than a little giant (perhaps I should say giantess), I would have no tears of envy or jealousy to shed on that account. The world is wide—the northwest is no "pent-up Utica." There is room for Chicago, and still a little to spare. We, of Wisconsin, are interested of course in our own commercial emporium; and I deem it but just that we give to her our best wishes, and, so far as she proves herself worthy of them, our best efforts. And I doubt not she is disposed to do the fair thing. Milwaukee has commercial power and influence, and may so wield them that she will be regardee as no mean competitor with Chicago for the rapidly increasing trade and traffic of the northwest. Indeed the strong beating of her pulse of trade is unquestionably felt here even now. Let this competition continue—only let it be characterised by the utmost fairness. I have always deprecated this war of towns and cities when a narrow and contemptible jealousy has been at the bottom of it. But opposition, or competition conducted in a way to live and let live, is the life of business. It is a glorious thing for the northwest—for Wisconsin at least, that on the waters that line her eastern boundary are two great commercial centres ready always to compete for her great and growing business. Illinois is a great state; but, considering her age, Wisconsin is not a whit behind her. But I may as well stop here, for this theme seems to be growing on my hands.

I came to this city yesterday, and expect to remain till Friday morning. I shall try to take a peep into the Tribune office to-morrow. Concerning my business here, and other matters, more anon.

Faithfully yours, — W. —

"THE FORCE OF FOLLY COULD NO FURTHER GO."—A Parisian genius has just invented a musical petticoat! By the aid of scientific mechanism, the crinoline is rid of all springs, hoops, bolts, pivets, &c., and is inflated, like a life-preserver, the air furnishing any amount of distension required, to a given circumference say a quarter of a mile. The sublime feature of the invention is this: The elegant wearer need only touch a spring, arranged to communicate with the pocket of her dress, and the air in her skirt sets in motion a musical attachment not unlike a bird-organ, playing a variety of tunes, from the gems of the operas to a nursery lullaby. The inventor confidently declares that the ballroom orchestras may be entirely dispensed with in future; the ladies wearing his "musical petticoat" can provide themselves with waltzes, quadrilles and polkas to their hearts' content.

WM. E. STRONG INJURED.—We regret to learn that this gentleman, who left this city a week since to enter the Law Schools at Cambridge, Mass. was severely injured, by falling, while practicing gymnastic exercises at North Andover, where he was visiting his friends. He broke one or two of his ribs and received some pretty severe bruises by the fall, but we believe none that were considered dangerous. We shall be glad to hear of his perfect recovery.—Racine Advocate.

☞ The following from Harper's Magazine, is appropriate to the times:

Polite Candidate.—Madam, is your husband about?

Lady.—Yes, sir. He has gone out to haul away a dead dog, and will be back directly.

Candidate.—Sheep killing dog, I reckon madam?

Fierce-Spoken Urchin.—No, sir—jest barked himself to death at candidates—so pap said.

A HUGE STRAW.—There are one hundred and three Germans in this township who have declared their intention to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, who voted in 1856 for Buchanan; making a gain of two hundred and six for the republican ticket.—Lafayette Journal, 11th.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27th.

The steamship Persia from Liverpool, 15th, via Queenstown, 16th has arrived. Italian affairs unchanged. The French minister had left Turin. The King of Naples had gone to Spain.

LIVERPOOL.—The weather had been favorable for crops, but it again became boisterous on Friday. Flour quiet and steady. Wheat firm; corn quiet but rather firmer.

LONDON.—Harvest making rapid progress and weather rather more favorable.

Napoleon reached Agacato; the French forces at Rome are to be increased by two regiments. Naples was tranquil. Garabaldi exchanged interviews with the English admiral and ambassador.

Sardinian troops had disembarked at Naples by request of Garabaldi who transferred the Neapolitan fleet to Sardinia. Gen. Fauti was appointed commander-in-chief.

Lomoriciere had concetrated his troops at Aucona. The French minister had withdrawn from Turin. The business of the legation will be conducted by the secretary. Purnguay had been declared in a state of siege and the inhabitants threatened with the direst penalties for the merest fracture of the telegraph wires. Sardinian memorandum in defence of the course adopted is published. The Emperor of Austria gave a grand banquet in honor of the emperor of Russia's birth day.

LATEST VIA QUEENSTOWN.

TURIN, Sept. 15.

Italian journals express regret at the recall of the French ambassador. Naples letters state that very earnest, popular demonstrations are taking place. Many priests had fraternized with the people. The enrollment of volunteers was ordered.

Garabaldi declared that he would proclaim the annexation of Naples to Piedmont from the summit of the Quanernal, where all the Italians will be united in one national banquet; a reactionary movement had transpired with fatal conflicts.

Ariono and Garabaldi were marching there.

ROME, Sept. 15.

The tri-color was hoisted, but it is said the people did not support the intended demonstration. The alleged order of Lomoriere for pillage in case of insurrection is confirmed.

PARIS, Sept. 15.

The Constitutional says the recall of the ambassabor from Turin is to express disapproval of the course of Sardinia but is far from rupture. Perugay calls aloud for vengeance, though late she will have it. A strong Piedmont corps is keeping watch of the movements of the Austrians.

LONDON, Sept. 15.

Two ships have arrived with £300,000 of Australian gold. The Persia passed the America on the 23.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

The official despatches from Peru announce that the Peruvian government had made a proposition to our minister for the settlement of all existing difficulties between the two governments.

Solara Alvar who recently absconded from Havana with a million and a quarter dollars belonging to the creditors and Panol of Madrid, landed from an open boat recently at Key West.

John Casterna distiller at Huntington and two sons were suffocated on Tuesday while repairing their still.

The city Republicans yesterday nominated Ames J. Williamson editor of the despatch in 3d Congregational district, Wm. Wall, Esq. mayor of Williamsburg in the 5th, Augustus J. Dow in the 7th, Abraham Wakeman in the 8th. The Breckinridgers in the latter district nominated Ex-Sheriff Willets.

CINCINNATI 27th.

Judge Douglas left Columbus yesterday by a special train for Cincinnati, the greatest enthusiasm was displayed along the route and points where the train stopped, the addition of 22 cars was mado to the train at Xenia which arriqed at Dayton at 12 o'clock, Mr. Douglas was welcomed by a tremendous crowd, he proceeded to the Court house where he made a speech of about 10 minutes and immediately left for Hamilton, along the route from Dayton to Hamilton there was enthusiastic receptions every where.

MADISON, Sept. 27, 3 o'clock P. M.

The state fair grounds are crowded with a large attendance. It is estimated that there are between 15 and 20,000 people on the grounds. The fair is a perfect success.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 26.

The Executive committees of both wings of the Democracy meet here on the 5th of October next and will endeavor to effect a fusion. The Enquirer hopes that the union of the two wings will be effected by the withdrawal of Mr. Douglas, but fear, that this proposition comes too late.

Mr. Yancy addresses the National Democracy on Monday next.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.

A dispatch to the World says that Government has ordered 17,000 stand of arms to Fort Moultrie, S. C.

A dead body washed ashore at Long Island has been identified as that of Captain Leete, of the oyster sloop Spray, supposed murdered by Jackalow, the Chinese pirate.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26.

The Douglas and Breckinridge parties held meeting's here last night. During the speech of Judge Hulleberton at the Breckinridge gathering, an attempt was made by the Douglas men, to break up the meeting. During the melee, two Breckinridge men were slightly stabbed. The Bulletin calls upon members of the party to be prepared for the future, to fight, shoot or arrest in the maintenance of their privileges.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

Flour market 5a10c better—sales 18,500 bbls 5,15a5,35 super state; 5,45a5,60 extra state; 5,19a5,35 super western; 5,45a5,75 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1a3c better with moderate export demand—sales 150,006 bushels at 1,18a1,23½ for Chicago spring.

MILWUKEE, Sept. 27.

The wheat market opened with an easier feeling and sales were freely made at 91c in store, and 92c for delivered. A good shipping demand exists as there are several vessels to fill up. Buyers and sellers readily agreed at these rates. Extra was in fair demand at previous rates. Flour market quiet and without change.

ON HIS BELLY.—J. D. Reymert, the man who is running for Congress against Hanchett in the second District—a man who does not hesitate to hold office at the hands of an administration which he professes to scorn and despise—has published a circular to his Norwegian countrymen, in which he declares himself to be an Abolitionist of the first water. * *

We have understood it to be the wish of the National Democracy not to nominate candidates for Congress in this State, but to make choice between the two evils placed before them. The dose in the 2d District, however, is entirely too nauseating, and we see no other way for the Democracy of that district, than to nominate and vote for a candidate of their own.—Mil. Enquirer (Breckinridge.)

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

RETURNED TO CHICAGO.—Mrs. Senator Douglas has returned to Chicago, and is stopping at the Tremont House. The Senator still tarries in Ohio.

NOMINATIONS.—Wm. B. Ogden has been nominated by the republicans of Chicago, for their state senate. For the legislature they have nominated for the 56th district, J. Y. Scammon and Wm. H. Brown, and for the 57th district, Homer Wilmarth and S. M. Wilson.

At a recent Lincoln demonstration in Wheeling, as the German Wide Awakes were returning to their quarter near the Custom House, a gang of democratic rowdies rushed up and seized a flag belonging to the company and destroyed it.

The earnings of the Milwaukee & Mississippi railroad for the month of August were $61,041 61, being an increase over the corresponding month of last year of $11,655,31.

Oliver Johnson, Editor of the New York anti-slavery Standard, having been summoned as a juror the other day, sent a note to the court asking to be excused, on the ground that he was adjudged to be "crazy," being the editor of a paper which asserted the constitution to be a covenant with death and an agreement with hell. The court, however, thought that there was a little too much method in Mr. Johnson's madness, and refused to let him off.

A correspondent of the Syracuse Journal says that Douglas was blackguard enough to apply the epithet "pimp" to a gentleman who asked him a civil question, during his speech at Clifton Springs.

The sum of $200 was offered a day or two since in New York for a couple of tickets to the Prince of Wales' ball. A few days previous a single ticket was sold for $25.

A reviewer in the Atlantic Monthly speaks of certain writers of popular newspaper stories as having obtained a "world wide obscurity."

Mrs. Dwight, the wife of the editor of Dwight's Journal of Music, and a lady of rare musical attainments, died in Boston last week.

Two blacksmiths in Brooklyn, N. Y., had a duel with sledge hammers the other day, and both were fatally injured.

Judge John C. Richardson, of the supreme court of Missouri, died on Friday, at St. Louis, of congestive chills.

The State Journal says that Gov. Randall goes to Indiana next week to speak in behalf of the Republican cause in that state.

The Buffalo express of Saturday says "the Hon. Butler G. Noble, Lieut. Gov. of Wisconsin, is in town, the guest of his cousin, Chas. E. Noble, agent of the Michigan Central Railroad at this point."

The Cincinnati Post, the only Bell paper in Ohio, has been discontinued for want of support.

FURNITURE STORE!

N. SWAGER,

LATE of the firm of L. Moses & Co., would announce to the citizens of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties that he has made a large addition to his former stock of which, for beauty, style and cheapness cannot be surpassed by any competitor west of New York and Boston. Among my numerous articles I will only mention Tete a Tete Sofas, Easy Chairs, Sofa Chairs, Rocking and Sewing Chairs, Spring and Bed Lounges, Center Tables with Marble and Mahogany tops, Card Tables, Teapoy, Quartets and Whatnots, Looking Glasses with Rosewood, Gilt and Mahogany Frames, Looking Glass Plates of all sizes, Secretaries and Bureaus of Mahogany and Blackwalnut, Extension, Dining, Breakfast and Kitchen Tables, Washstands, Washstand Bureaus, Enclosed Washstands and Cinquo Washstands, Cane Seat, Flag Seat and Wooden Seat Chairs of every description, Bedsteads of all kinds, Mattrasses and Pillows of Hair and Feathers.

Parlor and Common Furniture,

I would call the attention to my exclusive right for Rock county to manufacture and sell the

Self-Adjusting Spring Bed,

(Robinson's patent) and Bed Bottom Spring Bed, (patented in 1859 by Benjamin F. S. Monroe of Utica, N. Y.) I am prepared to furnish these excellent and best articles now in use in that line, they are much cheaper and more durable than the ordinary spring bed, and they have received premiums at different fairs in the eastern states and are now used in the principal hotels in all the large cities.

N. B.—As I buy my stock, materials, &c., direct from the manufacturers and importers, for Cash, I am enabled to sell cheaper than any establishment in the furniture line west of New York and Boston.

COFFINS of all the latest New York and Chicago styles, of all sizes, and trimmed in every variety of style, constantly on hand.

Repairing and upholstering of every kind done on short notice and in the best manner.

Particular attention will be given to work ordered at this establishment. As I have had twenty years experience in manufacturing furniture, and have been for the last five years a partner in the firm of L. Moses & Co., all persons wishing anything in my line are requested to give me a call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stirring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,

Proprietor of the

Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,

adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the

Petty Slop Shops

in the land. From the fact that the Original

Young America Clothing House

has held for the last

EIGHT YEARS

the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the

Cheapest Establishment

of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.

The People of Rock County

are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce

A BOGUS LAW

upon them, to get them to purchase their

Fall and Winter Clothing

from him He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the

Largest and Best Stock of Clothing

of all kinds, including the finest

CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,

and the best variety of

BEAVER OVERCOATS!

ever brought to the west. Also,

Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,

of every description, with

Pants and Vests

to match, as well as any quantity of

Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkerchiefs, Stocks, Under Shirts,

and every article of

Wearing Apparel

that man can want.

If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the

Original Young America Clothing House

does not claim that virtue He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

Hats and Caps

down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"

meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.

His Merchant Tailoring Department

is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,

MR. A. B. MC'LEAN,

who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

CHEAP CLOTHING,

ENGLISH AND FRENCH ACADEMY.

Located at Sauk City, Wisconsin.

H. J. TURNER, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

5th Academic Year.

THIS Institution is strictly a Family Boarding School, and is under the immediate supervision of Prof. TURNER, formerly of Utica, N. Y. Prof. Turner's long experience as a teacher, the beautiful and ample playgrounds attached to his residence and Academy, and their healthful position, recommend them to the parents who should wish to confide their children to the care of Prof. Turner, who will superintend the studies of the Institution, and give his particular attention to the modern languages. The French, being the language of the family, will be the language of the Institution.—German and Spanish are also written and spoken. Prof. Turner will guarantee that, independent of their other studies, his pupils will, at the close of the scholastic year, speak and write the French language. When pupils are far enough advanced in French, instruction will be given in Spanish or Italian.

Mrs. Turner will devote her attention to the Family Department; her kindness and long experience qualify her well to discharge the difficult duties of that station, and she will spare no efforts to secure the comfort of all confided to her care.

The next term of the Institution commences the first day of October. For circulars, or further particulars, address, PROF. H. J. TURNER,

Great Republican Demonstration At Chicago.

ATTENTION WIDE AWAKES!

The ladies of Chicago will present to the wide-awake company, having the greatest number in proportion to the republican vote of the town from which it comes, a splendid banner, worth $100, and as the Janesville company have resolved to compete for the prize it is desirable that every exertion be used by the republicans of this city to swell the ranks of our wide-awakes on this occasion.

The Superintendent of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. has generously put the fare for the round trip, to Chicago and back to the wide-awakes from this city, at one dollar each, provided a sufficient number can be induced to go; therefore let every member be on hand to-night at the drill with a determination to bring home that "banner." As it is necessary to know on Monday morning the exact number intending to go, Mr. G. S. Strasberger will be at the court room on Saturday evening next with tickets, and all who desire to march with the wide-awakes and keep step to the music on Tuesday must be there. Let every uniform be filled and every lamp trimmed.

By resolution of the company every torch staff is to be painted tri-color, and as Mr. A. W. Hathaway has generously volunteered to do it, every wide-awake is commanded to bring his staff, without flag or torch, to the hall to-night when Mr. Hathaway will take them, and return them on Saturday evening in time for drill, painted to order.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

Wisconsin Conference.

The sermon yesterday afternoon was by Rev. C. C. Symes; it was a close, logical discourse and was well received. In the evening Rev. T. Wilcox—a good practical discourse.

The business of this morning has progressed with harmony and dispatch. The reports of several committees of the examination of candidates for the ministry called forth some good humored and spicy debates. The remarks of Bishop Scott to the second year's class were of a very solemn and searching character. The duties and privileges of a minister were clearly set forth. Sermon this afternoon by Rev. A. Foster. This evening sermon by Rev. A. C. Manwell of Milwaukee.

GRAPES.—B. B. Eldredge, Esq., of this city, finds time, amidst his professional duties, to cultivate a nice fruit garden. He brought us a specimen of his Isabella grapes, to-day, which are now ripe. They are the fines specimens of that kind of grape we have seen this season. Mr. Eldredge says that our climate and soil are just right for grapes, and earnestly recommends every one to cultivate this fruit. He is favor of a great deal of pruning and would always train the Isabella and Catawba grape to a stake, six feet high with a cross piece upon it three feet long, and keep it cut down to that size. All grapes should be planted deeply, in rich, gravelly soil, well drained and cultivated. His list of grapes are as follows: Concord, ripe in August; Alexander and Diana, ripe Sept. 1st to the middle of the month; Isabella and Catawba, ripe from 25th of September to the 1st of October. We hope the example of Mr. Eldredge may be generally followed, and that before many years the grape may be as plenty here as on the hills and plains of Italy.

In addition to the treatment of the grape, above described, the vines should be laid down and protected in the winter, in this climate by covering them with straw or earth.

☞ Mr. E. A. Burlingame, formerly a teacher in our public schools, has become associated with L. Davis in the publication of the Michigan State News, at Ann Arbor. Mr. B. is a forcible writer, and we have no doubt will became a successful journalists.

☞ The Milwaukee Wide Awakes have resolved to attend the Seward demonstration on the 2d of October, in Chicago,

THE NORTWESTERN UNIVERSALIST CONVENTION.—The convention met on Tuesday afternoon at Chicago, at which hour a sermon was delivered by Rev. G. W. Brown. The committee on organization not being ready to report, a conference meeting was held, and addresses made by Rev. D. H. Rugn, N. Crary, W. B. Lowell, G. W. Lawrence, R. M. Bartlett, Wm. Tompkins, M. Conant, Unitarian, and others.

NEW TIME TABLE.—A change in the time table of the Chicago and Norwestern Railway will be found in the advertisement on our first page.

ACCIDENT AT MADISON.—Some children got into the fair grounds Monday and while attempting to get in operation a large rotary swing, it fell killing a young girl named Mary Burke, and hurting several others very seriously. Among the latter were Mary Kelly, and a girl of the name of Starr. John Rowland, a boy about 14 years old, had his arm broken, and another boy of the name of Neagle was badly hurt, a screw making a severe wound in his back.

A man was killed near Farwell's mills by being thrown from a wagon. He was intoxicated, and his horses were running away with him. When thrown out, he struck with such violence that the ribs of his left side, about the heart were completely broken in. Parts of the wagon and some window sash were found near by.

☞ We find the following in the New York Insurance Monitor for September:

HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We print the one hundredth semi-annual statement of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. The Old Hartford as it is familiarly called, was incorporated in 1810 with a perpetual charter. It has done a successful general fire insurance business for half a century. Its capital and surplus amount to nearly a million dollars; its stock is quoted at a higher rate than any American company. Within the month it has sold at $215, and this price is freely offered without sales of any amount. Its semi-annual dividends have become 10 per cent fixed facts. A detailed statement of its assets will be found in another column; all the investments are first class.

F. Whitaker, of this city, is agent for this company.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 27, 1860.

There was another falling off in receipts of wheat today, only 7000 bushels being on the market. Prices, under more favorable advices from the lake shore and eastern markets, were considerably firmer, and yesterday's decline was fully recovered; the range being from 82 to 85c for good to choice milling lots and 79@81c for shipping—closing with good demand at these figures. No change to note in coarse grains.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling spring 82a85; common to fair shipping 79a81.

CORN—old shelled at 30a32c per 56 lbs. New in ear 18a22 per 70 lbs.

OATS—in better supply at 16a18c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 35a40c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—in good demand at 50a55c per 50 lbs., for good samples, and 35a45c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—scarce at 14a16 for good to choice roll.

EGGS—quick sale at 7a8c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—chickens, 5a7; turkeys, 7a8.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little coming forward.

Chicago Market.

Wednesday evening, September 26.

Yesterday was one of the most active days of the season in wheat, and a large business was done at 82½a85c for No. 2 spring, 86a87½c for No 1 do., 89c for northwestern club, and 75c for rejected spring; the ruling prices being 82a83½c for No 2, and 86a89½c for No 1 spring—the market closing feverish and unsettled, owing to the contradictory nature of the eastern advices received by telegraph during the day. There was rather a better demand for flour, but the market showed but little change from Tuesday; and in order to effect sales to any extent, sellers were compelled to accept lower prices.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857,	33⅓	Pct
2d " " "	1858,	50	"
3d " " "	1859,	50	"
4th " " "	1860,	45	"

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,				$570,833 48
" 1857,	"	"	"	649,719 54

The Inconsistences of Douglas.

The inconsistencies practiced by Douglas in his public career, are so palpable that it is strange that he has any position at all as a candidate. Take his changes upon one subject, that of the ever present and always talked about principle—the right of the people of a territory to introduce or exclude slavery, as they please, in a territorry:

At Freeport in Aug. 1858, he declared distinctly in favor of the right of the people to exclude slavery from a territory by "unfriendly legislation." In November of the same year, he said at Memphis, that "there was no power to prevent a southern man from going into the territories, with his slaves more than a northern man," and at New Orleans, in December following, he declared in substance the same thing, and that "slaves are recognized as property, and placed upon an equal footing with all other property."

In the senate on the 23d of February, 1859, he reiterated the same sentiment, and added that "there is just as much obligation on the part of the part of the territorial legislature to protect slaves as every other species of property, as there is to protect horses, cattle, dry goods, liquors," &c. —Cong. Globe, 1858–9, page 1256.

And yet, after reiterating this setiment in various ways and at different times; and after acknowledging that the decision of the supreme court, on this subject, is "an authoritative expositiov of the constitution," and after acknowledging that the Wickliffe resolution, adopted as a part of the platform at Baltimore "is a faithful embodiment of the principles of the democratic party"—he tells us at Clifton Springs, New York, the other day, that he "holds that the people of a territory, may introduce, exclude, abolish or regulate slavery, just as they please!"—Here he gets back to his position at Freeport, after asserting roundly and pointedly, for two years that he held an entirely different doctrine.

This specimen of inconsistency is only equalled by his advocating, all his life, the doctrines of free trade, and then in a recent speech in Pennsylvania, coming squarely out for a protective tariff!

Is it possible that a man so wavering and inconsistent in his principles can be a statesman fit to guide the destinies of the nation?

That's Enough.

While Larrabee was fulminating his anathemas at the republicans at a recent Democratic gathering at Menasha, an intelligent, stalwart Irishman interrupted him with a wish to ask him a question.

Larrabee—And what do you want, my friend?

Irishman—Didn't you vote for a Know Nothing for speaker, Judge Larrabee?

Larrabee—I did, and would do so a hundred times rather than see a black republican elected.

Irishman—Then you voted for a Know Nothing, did you?

Larrabee—Yes.

Irishman—That's enough! And turning to the crowd, he said, "Boys, we have no further business here," and left the meeting followed by about twenty-five of the honest sons of Erin, who scorn a Know Nothing, even though he wear the livery of a Democrat.—State Journal.

Warned by the result of this admission, Larrabee charged the editor of the Watertown Republican with a lie because he asserted in his paper the fact what Larrabee admitted at Menasha, and got into "a muss" with him in a public meeting in Watertown on account of it, denying that Mr. Smith, for whom he voted for Speaker was a Know Nothing. Newspapers are ugly customers for the little dodger.

☞ Walker, the filibuster, has not been shot. He has made his appearance, says the Chicago Tribune, in New Orleans, "with no more holes in his skin than are essential."

FOREIGN NEWS.

The Anglo Saxon arrived at Quebec yesterday, bringing Liverpool dates to the 13th. Wheat is reported at full prices, and corn firm.

Sardinian troops had entered the states of the church to the number of 50,000.—Pesora and Oriveto garrisoned by Germans had been taken and the prisoners sent to Turin.

The Pope's commander-in-chief had concentrated his army at Ancona. Several powers had protested against the entry of the Sardinians into the states of the Church as an attack upon international rights.—Russia and Prussia protested in the strongest terms, but would take no other steps.

Cavour had issued a note explaining the new attitude of Sardinia.

It was asserted that the French army at Rome will be increased to 10,000 men.

A Paris telegram to the London Post, dated Wednesday night, says the Piedmontese forces are marching rapidly on Lamoricierre's army and an engagement is expected to take place to-morrow. The Emperor and the French Government has used every exertion to prevent an invasion of the Roman states. The relations of France and Piedmont are critical.

The Times says that Victor Emanuel finds a formiable competitor in Garribaldi, whose success appears sufficient to overcome any resistance that can be made by the States of the Church, and which brings him into collision with the Austrian power in Venice. Piedmont must make herself mistress of the revolution, or give up the lead, and follow. There is reason to believe that the Emperor Napoleon sees things from this point of view, and that no danger need be apprehended from France.

The English attacking party at Martard, New Zealand, consisted of 347 men. The natives lay down on the ground until the men were close upon them, when they sprang up, fired their double barrel guns, and met the bayonet charge of their adversaries with the tomahawk, keeping up a hand-to-hand fight. The retreat of the English was so urgent that their dead and a few of the wounded were left on the battle field. It is also reported that the natives took one gun. Great complaints are made against Col. Gould, the commander of the attacking party, for not calling to his aid an additional force, which was said to be in his reach.

It was reported that France has refused to make the slightest concession to Switzerland in the Savoy affair. Switzerland therefore persists more than ever in considering the question one for the decision of Europe.

☞ The Racine Advocate notices an important political change in Racine county. George Q. Erskine, at a republican meeting in the 2d assembly district, renounced "democracy" and declared in favor of the republican party. The Advocate says—"Among the young and hard working democracy of Racine county, this gentleman has held a prominent place during the past four or five years, but we are happy to announce the fact that he holds it no longer. He has turned his back upon the fallacies and deceits of modern democracy, and henceforth will do battle for the people and "Honest Old Abe."

"We could name several other wheel horses of the "young democracy" whom we expect to welcome to the republican camp before the great battle in November."

☞ Mr. Reymert, the democratic candidate for congress takes the Garrison position on the subject of slavery. He says:

"I am, and always have been against slavery in the United States, and its extension into new territories."

We don't see how our neighbors of the Democrat can support him, while he manifests such hostility to slavery in the States. How Reymert can be opposed to its extension into the territories and support Douglas, who don't care whether it is voted up or down, and who is willing to leave the decision of that question to the supreme court and afterwards to the people, is not very clear.

We suspect that Mr. Reymert is attempting to play the game of two-faced Hobart, who declared that he was a better free-soiler than the republicans, while he continued to sustain Buchanan's administration. He will probably succeed just about as that gentleman did.

☞ The Bell and Everett party have made a full nomination in Massachusetts.

☞ Lord Renfrew and suite arrived at St. Louis yesterday. There was a crowd of some 4,000 near the place of landing, but no inconvenience was experienced in passing rapidly from the boat to a carriage, whence his highness was driven to Barnum's Hotel. The Prince has expressed himself highly pleased with his tour thus far through the United States.

A GOOD SIXTEEN MONTH'S WORK.—Bayard Taylor, in a farewell article to the N. Y. Mercury, thus sums up his labor for the past sixteen months:—"Two hundred and fifty lectures, thirty thousand miles of travel, forty-eight Mercury articles, two books published, and one house built."

"OUR LARRABEE" ON THE STUMP.—We are informed that the meeting at Mayville last Thursday, held by appointment of Judge Larrabee, went off in style somewhat similar to that at Waupun on the 8th. At the hour for speaking to commence there were fourteen democrats in the room! Our Elijah had occasion just then to go out for a glass of beer, and the audience did not hear his speech. Considering that Mayville is a strong democratic section, this fizzle is full of significance.

LARRABEE IN HOT WATER.

From individuals present we have received an account of the meeting in Watertown last Friday evening, which was held for the benefit of Judge Larrabee. The little joker found himself in a very uncomfortable position in attempting to explain his vote for a Know Nothing speaker. In asking who made such a charge against him, he was answered by one of the delegates in convention which nominated him, who told him plainly, "I say, Charly Larrabee that you voted for a Know-Nothing and for that reason, I shall not vote for you as a member of Congress." The delegate was a Mr. Moore of Watertown, and he added that he was a Douglas man in earnest and should vote for Douglas and Sloan.—Beaver Dam Citizen.

ALLEGED DEFALCATION OF BRIGHAM YOUNG.—A dispatch from Washington, D. C., (says the Baltimore Sun,) states that the accounts of Brigham Young, as ex officio superintendent of Indian affairs in Utah, have just undergone a long and searching scrutiny, and that show he is a defaulter to the Government to a considerable extent. A special agent has accordingly been dispatched to Utah to undertake the recovery of the money.

Correspondence of the Janesville Gazette.

TREMONT HOUSE,
CHICAGO, Sept. 25th, 1860.

EDS. GAZETTE.—In these fast times—these days of travel by steam, and almost by lightning, the traveler can have very little opportunity to take "notes by the way." A few years ago, when we journeyed by slow stages, the tourist enjoyed good opportunities of seeing and being seen, and could think and write as much as he pleased. Now the case is different. On leaving home for a journey of even a thousand miles, one can scarcely collect his thoughts and screw them up to the sticking point, before he is at the end of his journey; so that, even if he could steadily see any thing on his flying tour, he has opportunity to give it no more than a mere passing attention. On these swift lines of travel the only persons who can "take notes" to advantage are the railroad agents, steamboat captains, hotel-keepers, etc. They have learned how to do this thing, and, generally speaking, they do it admirably. I make this remark in no complaining spirit. Just now I have no fault to find with any body. I have been treated quite as well as I deserve, no doubt, perhaps, better. But really, the way the loose change will leak out of one's pocket when he goes from home, is just the easiest way imaginable, however close and strict his caution and economy. If any man has a surplus of means, and is benevolently desirous of getting rid of it pro bono publico, he has only to travel a few weeks, and see the lions, to have his wish fully realized.

Chicago seems to be steadily recovering from the depressing influences that have weighed heavily upon all our western towns for the past three years. On passing thro' her streets I notice occasionally the ominous words "to let" on the bolted doors.—But I noticed them far more frequently two years ago. Since then there has been a wonderful improvement in business matters. The indications of a growing prosperity are quite apparent. Seventeen years ago I made this city my home for the space of eight or ten months. Chicago then, compared with what it is to-day, was but a village. Now, viewing it from the court house tower, as I did in company with some friends from Emerald Grove, on this beautiful September morning, I find it stretching away for miles in every direction, save into the lake—to the north, to the south, and to the west. Chicago must be a great city—this, if I am a true prophet, is "manifest destiny." In no spirit of narrowness would I deny to her the elements of future greatness. And for one, I rejoice in her growth. If she becomes in process of time something more than a little giant (perhaps I should say giantess), I would have no tears of envy or jealousy to shed on that account. The world is wide—the northwest is no "pent-up Utica." There is room for Chicago, and still a little to spare. We, of Wisconsin, are interested of course in our own commercial emporium; and I deem it but just that we give to her our best wishes, and, so far as she proves herself worthy of them, our best efforts. And I doubt not she is disposed to do the fair thing. Milwaukee has commercial power and influence, and may so wield them that she will be regardee as no mean competitor with Chicago for the rapidly increasing trade and traffic of the northwest. Indeed the strong beating of her pulse of trade is unquestionably felt here even now. Let this competition continue—only let it be characterised by the utmost fairness. I have always deprecated this war of towns and cities when a narrow and contemptible jealousy has been at the bottom of it. But opposition, or competition conducted in a way to live and let live, is the life of business. It is a glorious thing for the northwest—for Wisconsin at least, that on the waters that line her eastern boundary are two great commercial centres ready always to compete for her great and growing business. Illinois is a great state; but, considering her age, Wisconsin is not a whit behind her. But I may as well stop here, for this theme seems to be growing on my hands.

I came to this city yesterday, and expect to remain till Friday morning. I shall try to take a peep into the Tribune office to-morrow. Concerning my business here, and other matters, more anon.

Faithfully yours, — W. —

"THE FORCE OF FOLLY COULD NO FURTHER GO."—A Parisian genius has just invented a musical petticoat! By the aid of scientific mechanism, the crinoline is rid of all springs, hoops, bolts, pivots, &c., and is inflated, like a life-preserver, the air furnishing any amount of distension required, to a given circumference say a quarter of a mile. The sublime feature of the invention is this: The elegant wearer need only touch a spring, arranged to communicate with the pocket of her dress, and the air in her skirt sets in motion a musical attachment not unlike a bird-organ, playing a variety of tunes, from the gems of the operas to a nursery lullaby. The inventor confidently declares that the ballroom orchestras may be entirely dispensed with in future; the ladies wearing his "musical petticoat" can provide themselves with waltzes, quadrilles and polkas to their hearts' content.

WM. E. STRONG INJURED.—We regret to learn that this gentleman, who left this city a week since to enter the Law Schools at Cambridge, Mass. was severely injured, by falling, while practicing gymnastic exercises at North Andover, where he was visiting his friends. He broke one or two of his ribs and received some pretty severe bruises by the fall, but we believe none that were considered dangerous. We shall be glad to hear of his perfect recovery.—Racine Advocate.

☞ The following from Harper's Magazine, is appropriate to the times:

Polite Candidate.—Madam, is your husband about?

Lady.—Yes, sir. He has gone out to haul away a dead dog, and will be back directly.

Candidate.—Sheep-killing dog, I reckon madam?

Fierce-Spoken Urchin.—No, sir—jest barked himself to death at candidates—so pap said.

A HUGE STRAW.—There are one hundred and three Germans in this township who have declared their intention to vote for Lincoln and Hamlin, who voted in 1856 for Buchanan; making a gain of two hundred and six for the republican ticket.—Lafayette Journal, 11th.

Telegraphic.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

BY WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH LINE,
Office in Union Passenger Depot.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27th.

The steamship Persia from Liverpool, 15th, via Queenstown, 16th has arrived. Italiau affairs unchanged. The French minister had left Turin. The King of Naples had gone to Spain.

LIVERPOOL.—The weather had been favorable for crops, but it again became boisterous on Friday. Flour quiet and steady. Wheat firm; corn quiet but rather firmer.

LONDON.—Harvest making rapid progress and weather rather more favorable.

Napoleon reached Agacato; the French forces at Rome are to be increased by two regiments. Naples was tranquil. Garabaldi exchanged interviews with the English admiral and ambassador.

Sardinian troops had disembarked at Naples by request of Garabaldi who transferred the Neapolitan fleet to Sardinia. Gen. Fauti was appointed commander-in-chief.

Lomoriciere had concetrated his troops at Aucona. The French minister had withdrawn from Turin. The business of the legation will be conducted by the secretary. Puruguay had been declared in a state of siege and the inhabitants threatened with the direst penalties for the merest fracture of the telegraph wires. Sardinian memorandum in defence of the course adopted is published. The Emperor of Austria gave a grand banquet in honor of the emperor of Russia's birth day.

LATEST VIA QUEENSTOWN.

TURIN, Sept. 15.

Italian journals express regret at the recall of the French ambassador. Naples letters state that very earnest, popular demonstrations are taking place. Many priests had fraternized with the people. The enrollment of volunteers was ordered.

Garabaldi declared that he would proclaim the annexatiön of Naples to Piedmont from the summit of the Quanernal, where all the Italians will be united in one national banquet; a reactionary movement had transpired with fatal conflicts.

Ariono and Garabaldi were marching there.

ROME, Sept. 15.

The tri-color was hoisted, but it is said the people did not support the intended demonstration. The alleged order of Lomoriere for pillage in case of insurrection is confirmed.

PARIS, Sept. 15.

The Constitutional says the recall of the ambassabor from Turin is to express disapproval of the course of Sardinia but is far from rupture. Perugay calls aloud for vengeance, though late she will have it. A strong Piedmont corps is keeping watch of the movements of the Austrians.

LONDON, Sept. 15.

Two ships have arrived with £300,000 of Australian gold. The Persia passed the America on the 23.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

The official despatches from Peru announce that the Peruvian government had made a proposition to our minister for the settlement of all existing difficulties between the two governments.

Solara Alvar who recently absconded from Havana with a million and a quarter dollars belonging to the creditors and Panol of Madrid, landed from an open boat recently at Key West.

John Casterna distiller at Huntington and two sons were suffocated on Tuesday while repairing their still.

The city Republicans yesterday nominated Ames J. Williamson editor of the despatch in 3d Congregational district, Wm. Wall, Esq. mayor of Williamsburg in the 5th, Augustus J. Dow in the 7th, Abraham Wakeman in the 8th. The Breckinridgers in the latter district nominated Ex-Sheriff Willets.

CINCINNATI 27th.

Judge Douglas left Columbus yesterday by a special train for Cincinnati, the greatest enthusiasm was displayed along the route and points where the train stopped, the addition of 22 cars was made to the train at Xenia which arriqed at Dayton at 12 o'clock, Mr. Douglas was welcomed by a tremendous crowd, he proceeded to the Court house where he made a speech of about 10 minutes and immediately left for Hamilton, along the route from Dayton to Hamilton there was enthusiastic receptions every where.

MADISON, Sept. 27, 3 o'clock P. M.

The state fair grounds are crowded with a large attendance. It is estimated that there are between 15 and 20,000 people on the grounds. The fair is a perfect success.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 26.

The Executive committees of both wings of the Democracy meet here on the 5th of October next and will endeavor to effect a fusion. The Enquirer hopes that the union of the two wings will be effected by the withdrawal of Mr. Douglas, but fear, that this proposition comes too late.

Mr. Yancy addresses the National Democracy on Monday next.

NEW YORK, Sept. 26.

A dispatch to the World says that Government has ordered 17,000 stand of arms to Fort Moultrie, S. C.

A dead body washed ashore at Long Island has been identified as that of Captain Leete, of the oyster sloop Spray, supposed murdered by Jackalow, the Chinese pirate.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 26.

The Douglas and Breckinridge parties held meeting's here last night. During the speech of Judge Hulleberton at the Breckinridge gathering, an attempt was made by the Douglas men, to break up the meeting. During the melee, two Breckinridge men were slightly stabbed. The Bulletin calls upon members of the party to be prepared for the future, to fight, shoot or arrest in the maintenance of their privileges.

The Market.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.

Flour market 5a10c better—sales 18,500 bbls 5,15a5,35 super state; 5,45a5,60 extra state; 5,19a5,35 super western; 5,45a5,75 common to medium extra western. Wheat market 1a3c better with moderate export demand—sales 150,000 bushels at 1,18a1,-23½ for Chicago spring.

MILWUKEE, Sept. 27.

The wheat market opened with an easier feeling and sales were freely made at 91c in store, and 92c for delivered. A good shipping demand exists as there are several vessels to fill up. Buyers and sellers readily agreed at these rates. Extra was in fair demand at previous rates. Flour market quiet and without change.

ON HIS BELLY.—J. D. Reymert, the man who is running for Congress against Hanchett in the second District—a man who does not hesitate to hold office at the hands of an administration which he professes to scorn and despise—has published a circular to his Norwegian countrymen, in which he declares himself to be an Abolitionist of the first water. * *

We have understood it to be the wish of the National Democracy not to nominate candidates for Congress in this State, but to make choice between the two evils placed before them. The dose in the 2d District, however, is entirely too nauseating, and we see no other way for the Democracy of that district, than to nominate and vote for a candidate of their own.—Mil. Enquirer (Breckinridge.)

ALL SORTS OF PARAGRAPHS.

RETURNED TO CHICAGO.—Mrs. Senator Douglas has returned to Chicago, and is stopping at the Tremont House. The Senator still tarries in Ohio.

NOMINATIONS.—Wm. B. Ogden has been nominated by the republicans of Chicago, for their state senate. For the legislature they have nominated for the 56th district, J. Y. Scammon and Wm. H. Brown, and for the 57th district, Homer Wilmarth and S. M. Wilson.

At a recent Lincoln demonstration in Wheeling, as the German Wide Awakes were returning to their quarter near the Custom House, a gang of democratic rowdies rushed up and seized a flag belonging to the company and destroyed it.

The earnings of the Milwaukee & Mississippi railroad for the month of August were $61,041 61, being an increase over the corresponding month of last year of $11,655,31.

Oliver Johnson, Editor of the New York anti-slavery Standard, having been summoned as a juror the other day, sent a note to the court asking to be excused, on the ground that he was adjudged to be "crazy," being the editor of a paper which asserted the constitution to be a covenant with death and an agreement with hell. The court, however, thought that there was a little too much method in Mr. Johnson's madness, and refused to let him off.

A correspondent of the Syracuse Journal says that Douglas was blackguard enough to apply the epithet "pimp" to a gentleman who asked him a civil question, during his speech at Clifton Springs.

The sum of $200 was offered a day or two since in New York for a couple of tickets to the Prince of Wales' ball. A few days previous a single ticket was sold for $25.

A reviewer in the Atlantic Monthly speaks of certain writers of popular newspaper stories as having obtained a "world wide obscurity."

Mrs. Dwight, the wife of the editor of Dwight's Journal of Music, and a lady of rare musical attainments, died in Boston last week.

Two blacksmiths in Brooklyn, N. Y., had a duel with sledge-hammers the other day, and both were fatally injured.

Judge John C. Richardson, of the supreme court of Missouri, died on Friday, at St. Louis, of congestive chills.

The State Journal says that Gov. Randall goes to Indiana next week to speak in behalf of the Republican cause in that state.

The Buffalo express of Saturday says "the Hon. Butler G. Noble, Lieut. Gov. of Wisconsin, is in town, the guest of his cousin, Chas. E. Noble, agent of the Michigan Central Railroad at this point."

The Cincinnati Post, the only Bell paper in Ohio, has been discontinued for want of support.

FURNITURE STORE!

N. SWAGER,

LATE of the firm of L. Moses & Co., would announce to the citizens of Janesville, Rock and adjoining counties that he has made a large addition to his former stock of which, for beauty, style and cheapness cannot be surpassed by any competitor west of New York and Boston. Among my numerous articles I will only mention Tete a Tete Sofas, Easy Chairs, Sofa Chairs, Rocking and Sewing Chairs, Spring and Bed Lounges, Center Tables with Marble and Mahogany tops, Card Tables, Teapoy, Quartets and Whatnots, Looking Glasses with Rosewood, Gilt and Mahogany Frames, Looking Glass Plates of all sizes, Secretaries and Bureaus of Mahogany and Blackwalnut, Extension, Dinning, Breakfast and Kitchen Tables, Washstands, Washstand Bureaus, Enclosed Washstands and Cinque Wash- Cane Seat, Flag Seat and Wooden Seat Chairs of every description, Bedsteads of all kinds, Mattrasses and Pillows of Hair and Feathers.

Parlor and Common Furniture,

I would call the attention to my exclusive right for Rock county to manufacture and sell the

Self-Adjusting Spring Bed,

(Robinson's patent) and Bed Bottom Spring Bed, (patented in 1859 by Benjamin F. S. Monroe of Utica, N. Y.) I am prepared to furnish these excellent and best articles now in use in that line, they are much cheaper and more durable than the ordinary spring bed, and they have received premiums at different fairs in the eastern states and are now used in the principal hotels in all the large cities.

N. B.—As I buy my stock, materials, &c., direct from the manufacturers and importers, for Cash, I am enabled to sell cheaper than any establishment in the furniture line west of New York and Boston.

COFFINS of all the latest New York and Chicago styles, of all sizes, and trimmed in every variety of style, constantly on hand.

Repairing and upholstering of every kind done on short notice and in the best manner.

Particular attention will be given to work ordered at this establishment. As I have had twenty years experience in manufacturing furniture, and have been for the last five years a partner in the firm of L. Moses & Co., all persons wishing anything in my line are requested to give me a call and examine my stock before purchasing elsewhere.

YOUNG AMERICA FOREVER!

"Come one, come all, this Rock shall fly
From its firm base, as soon as I."

SUCH were the stiring words of James Fitz James to the bold chieftain, Rhoderick Dhu, in the Mountain Passes of Scotland, and now

MOSES HARSH,

Proprietor of the

Original Young America CLOTHING HOUSE,

adopts the language of the gallant Scottish hero as his own, and defies the competition and braggart blowing of all the

Petty Slop Shops

in the land. From the fact that the Original

Young America Clothing House

has held for the last

EIGHT YEARS

the conceded reputation of being the best and largest and, above all, the

Cheapest Establishment

of its kind in the state. That during that time other Clothing Stores have attempted to compete with it in this city, and one after another have busted. The proprietor of the feels that he has now the right to say it is as firmly fixed as a rock and as immovable as the everlasting hills. He knows the truth of what he says.

The People of Rock County

are his witnesses. They will not lie; nor is he under the necessity of attempting to enforce

A BOGUS LAW

upon them, to get them to purchase their

Fall and Winter Clothing

from him. He has just returned from the east, where he has purchased the

Largest and Best Stock of Clothing

of all kinds, including the finest

CLOTH COATS, CASSIMERE COATS,

and the best variety of

BEAVER OVERCOATS!

ever brought to the west. Also,

Ready Made Clothing for Men & Boy's Wear,

of every description, with

Pants and Vests

to match, as well as any quantity of

Shirts, Collars, Cravats, Handkercie!s, Stocks, Under Shirts,

and every article of

Wearing Apparel

that man can want.

If to "mitigate crime and alleviate the sufferings of mankind generally," by high sounding pretenses is a virtue, then the proprietor of the

Original Young America Clothing House

does not claim that virtue. He is ready to do what he promises, THE PEOPLE KNOW IT, and the thousands who have purchased, for years, their Clothing from him, from the best quality of

Hats and Caps

down to Draws and Socks, never would know what the words

"EXTRAVAGANT PRICES,"

meant, were they not to stray accidentally into other establishments pretending to compete with him.

His Merchant Tailoring Department

is unsurpassed, and his accomplished cutter,

MR. A. B. MC'LEAN,

who is at the head of it, is a gentleman of long experience and most excellent taste; the well dressed gentlemen of this city are walking witnesses of his conceded skill. Come then, one and all, if you want

CHEAP CLOTHING,

to the

Original Young America Clothing House

AT THE OLD PLACE IN

MYERS' BLOCK,

next door south of L. R. Carswell's Grocery Store.

ENGLISH AND FRENCH ACADEMY,

Located at Sauk City, Wisconsin.

H. J. TURNER, A. M., PRINCIPAL.

5th Academic Year.

THIS Institution is strictly a Family Boarding School, and is under the immediate supervision of Prof. TURNER, formerly of Utica, N. Y. Prof. Turner's long experience as a teacher, the beautiful and ample playgrounds attached to his residence and Academy, and their healthful position, recommend them to the parents who should wish to confide their children to the care of Prof. Turner, who will superintend the studies of the Institution, and give his particular attention to the modern languages. The French, being the language of the family, will be the language of the Institution.—German and Spanish are also written and spoken. Prof. Turner will guarantee that, independent of their other studies, his pupils will, at the close of the sholastic year, speak and write the French language. When pupils are far enough advanced in French, instruction will be given in Spanish or Italian.

Mrs. Turner will devote her attention to the Family Department; her kindness and long exderience qualify her well to discharge the difficult duties of that station, and she will spare no efforts to secure the comfort of all confided to her care.

The next term of the Institution commences the first day of October. For circulars, or further particulars, address, PROF. H. J. TURNER,

Great Republican Demonstration At Chicago.

ATTENTION WIDE AWAKES!

The ladies of Chicago will present to the wide-awake company, having the greatest number in proportion to the republican vote of the town from which it comes, a splendid banner, worth $100, and as the Janesville company have resolved to compete for the prize it is desirable that every exertion be used by the republicans of this city to swell the ranks of our wide-awakes on this occasion.

The Superintendent of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. has generously put the fare for the round trip, to Chicago and back to the wide-awakes from this city, at one dollar each, provided a sufficient number can be induced to go; therefore let every member be on hand to-night at the drill with a determination to bring home that "banner." As it is necessary to know on Monday morning the exact number intending to go, Mr. G. S. Strasberger will be at the court room on Saturday evening next with tickets, and all who desire to march with the wide-awakes and keep step to the music on Tuesday must be there. Let every uniform be filled and every lamp trimmed.

By resolution of the company every torch staff is to be painted tri-color, and as Mr. A. W. Hathaway has generously volunteered to do it, every wide-awake is commanded to bring his staff, without flag or torch, to the hall to-night when Mr. Hathaway will take them, and return them on Saturday evening in time for drill, painted to order.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

Wisconsin Conference.

The sermon yesterday afternoon was by Rev. C. C. Symes; it was a close, logical discourse and was well received. In the evening Rev. T. Wilcox—a good practical discourse.

The business of this morning has progressed with harmony and dispatch. The reports of several committees of the examination of candidates for the ministry called forth some good humored and spicy debates. The remarks of Bishop Scott to the second year's class were of a very solemn and searching character. The duties and privileges of a minister were clearly set forth. Sermon this afternoon by Rev. A. Foster. This evening sermon by Rev. A. C. Manwell of Milwaukee.

GRAPES.—B. B. Eldredge, Esq., of this city, finds time, amidst his professional duties, to cultivate a nice fruit garden. He brought us a specimen of his Isabella grapes, to-day, which are now ripe. They are the fines specimens of that kind of grape we have seen this season. Mr. Eldredge says that our climate and soil are just right for grapes, and earnestly recommends every one to cultivate this fruit. He is favor of a great deal of pruning and would always train the Isabella and Catawba grape to a stake, six feet high with a cross piece upon it three feet long, and keep it cut down to that size. All grapes should be planted deeply, in rich, gravelly soil, well drained and cultivated. His list of grapes are as follows: Concord, ripe in August; Alexander and Diana, ripe Sept. 1st to the middle of the month; Isabella and Catawba, ripe from 25th of September to the 1st of October. We hope the example of Mr. Eldredge may be generally followed, and that before many years the grape may be as plenty here as on the hills and plains of Italy.

In addition to the treatment of the grape, above described, the vines should be laid down and protected in the winter, in this climate by covering them with straw or earth.

☞ The Milwaukee Wide Awakes have resolved to attend the Seward demonstration on the 2d of October, in Chicago,

THE NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSALIST CONVENTION.—The convention met on Tuesday afternoon at Chicago, at which hour a sermon was delivered by Rev. G. W. Brown. The committee on organization not being ready to report, a conference meeting was held, and addresses made by Rev. D. H. Rugn, N. Crary, W. B. Lowell, G. W. Lawrence, R. M. Bartlett, Wm. Tompkins, M. Conant, Unitarian, and others.

ACCIDENT AT MADISON.—Some children got into the fair grounds Monday and while attempting to get in operation a large rotary swing, it fell killing a young girl named Mary Burke, and hurting several others very seriously. Among the latter were Mary Kelly, and a girl of the name of Starr. John Rowland, a boy about 14 years old, had his arm broken, and another boy of the name of Neagle was badly hurt, a screw making a severe wound in his back.

A man was killed near Farwell's mills by being thrown from a wagon. He was intoxicated, and his horses were running away with him. When thrown out, he struck with such violence that the ribs of his left side, about the heart were completely broken in. Parts of the wagon and some window sash were found near by.

☞ We find the following in the New York Insurance Monitor for September:

HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We print the one hundredth semi-annual statement of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. The Old Hartford as it is familiarly called, was incorporated in 1810 with a perpetual charter. It has done a successful general fire insurance business for half a century. Its capital and surplus amount to nearly a million dollars; its stock is quoted at a higher rate than any American company. Within the month it has sold at $215, and this price is freely offered without sales of any amount. Its semi-annual dividends have become 10 per cent fixed facts. A detailed statement of its assets will be found in another column; all the investments are first class.

F. Whitaker, of this city, is agent for this company.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, BY BUMP & GRAY. GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 27, 1860.

There was another falling off in receipts of wheat today, only 7000 bushels being on the market. Prices, under more favorable advices from the lake shore and eastern markets, were considerably firmer, and yesterday's decline was fully recovered; the range being from 82 to 85c for good to choice milling lots and 79@81c for shipping—closing with good demand at these figures. No change to note in coarse grains.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling spring 82a85; common to fair shipping 79a81.

CORN—old shelled at 30a39c per 60 lbs. New in car 18a22 per 70 lbs.

OATS—in better supply at 16a18c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 35a40c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—in good demand at 50a56c per 50 lbs., for good samples, and 35a45c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—scarce at 14a16 for good to choice roll

EGGS—quick sale at 7a8c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little comming forward.

Chicago Market.

Wednesday evening, September 26.

Yesterday was one of the most active days of the season in wheat, and a large business was done at 82½a86c for No. 2 spring, 86a87½c for No 1 do, 88c for northwestern club, and 75c for rejected spring; the ruling prices being 83a83½c for No 2, and 86a86½c for No 1 spring—the market closing feverish and unsettled, owing to the contradictory nature of the eastern advices received by telegraph during the day. There was rather a better demand for flour, but the market showed but little change from Tuesday; and in order to effect sales to any extent, sellers were compelled to accept lower prices.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857,	33⅓	per ct
2d " " "	1858,	50	"
3d " " "	1859,	50	"
4th " " "	1860,	45	"

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,			$570,863 48
"	1857,	" " "	649,719 54
"	1858,	" " "	751,908 52
"	1859,	" " "	906,681 84
"	1860,	" " "	993,208 28

Third—The insured incur no liability whatever, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.

ATTENTION WIDE AWAKES!

The ladies of Chicago will present to the wide-awake company, having the greatest number in proportion to the republican vote of the town from which it comes, a splendid banner, worth $100, and as the Janesville company have resolved to compete for the prize it is desirable that every exertion be used by the republicans of this city to swell the ranks of our wide-awakes on this occasion.

The Superintendent of the Chicago and Northwestern R. R. has generously put the fare for the round trip, to Chicago and back to the wide-awakes from this city, at one dollar each, provided a sufficient number can be induced to go; therefore let every member be on hand to-night at the drill with a determination to bring home that "banner." As it is necessary to know on Monday morning the exact number intending to go, Mr. G. S. Strasberger will be at the court room on Saturday evening next with tickets, and all who desire to march with the wide-awakes and keep step to the music on Tuesday must be there. Let every uniform be filled and every lamp trimmed.

By resolution of the company every torch staff is to be painted tri-color, and as Mr. A. W. Hathaway has generously volunteered to do it, every wide-awake is commanded to bring his staff, without flag or torch, to the hall to-night when Mr. Hathaway will take them, and return them on Saturday evening in time for drill, painted to order.

A. B. McLEAN, Captain.

Wisconsin Conference.

The sermon yesterday afternoon was by Rev. C. C. Symes; it was a close, logical discourse and was well received. In the evening Rev. T. Wilcox—a good practical discourse.

The business of this morning has progressed with harmony and dispatch. The reports of several committees of the examination of candidates for the ministry called forth some good humored and spicy debates. The remarks of Bishop Scott to the second year's class were of a very solemn and searching character. The duties and privileges of a minister were clearly set forth. Sermon this afternoon by Rev. A. Foster. This evening sermon by Rev. A. C. Manwell of Milwaukee.

GRAPES.—B. B. Eldredge, Esq., of this city, finds time, amidst his professional duties, to cultivate a nice fruit garden. He brought us a specimen of his Isabella grapes, to-day, which are now ripe. They are the fines specimens of that kind of grape we have seen this season. Mr. Eldredge says that our climate and soil are just right for grapes, and earnestly recommends every one to cultivate this fruit. He is favor of a great deal of pruning and would always train the Isabella and Catawba grape to a stake, six feet high with a cross piece upon it three feet long, and keep it cut down to that size. All grapes should be planted deeply, in rich, gravelly soil, well drained and cultivated. His list of grapes are as follows: Concord, ripe in August; Alexander and Diana, ripe Sept. 1st to the middle of the month; Isabella and Catawba, ripe from 25th of September to the 1st of October. We hope the example of Mr. Eldredge may be generally followed, and that before many years the grape may be as plenty here as on the hills and plains of Italy.

In addition to the treatment of the grape, above described, the vines should be laid down and protected in the winter, in this climate by covering them with straw or earth.

☞ Mr. E. A. Burlingame, formerly a teacher in our public schools, has become associated with L. Davis in the publication of the Michigan State News, at Ann Arbor. Mr. B. is a forcible writer, and we have no doubt will became a successful journalists.

☞ The Milwaukee Wide Awakes have resolved to attend the Seward demonstration on the 2d of October, in Chicago,

THE NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSALIST CONVENTION.—The convention met on Tuesday afternoon at Chicago, at which hour a sermon was delivered by Rev. G. W. Brown. The committee on organization not being ready to report, a conference meeting was held, and addresses made by Rev. D. H. Runn, N. Crary, W. B. Lowell, G. W. Lawrence, R. M. Bartlett, Wm. Tompkins, M. Conant, Unitarian, and others.

NEW TIME TABLE.—A change in the time table of the Chicago and Norwesterm Railway will be found in the advertisement on our first page.

ACCIDENT AT MADISON.—Some children got into the fair grounds Monday and while attempting to get in operation a large rotary swing, it fell killing a young girl named Mary Burke, and hurting several others very seriously. Among the latter were Mary Kelly, and a girl of the name of Starr. John Rowland, a boy about 14 years old, had his arm broken, and another boy of the name of Neagle was badly hurt, a screw making a severe wound in his back.

A man was killed near Farwell's mills by being thrown from a wagon. He was intoxicated, and his horses were running away with him. When thrown out, he struck with such violence that the ribs of his left side, about the heart were completely broken in. Parts of the wagon and some window sash were found near by.

☞ We find the following in the New York Insurance Monitor for September:

HARTFORD FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY.—We print the one hundredth semi-annual statement of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company. The Old Hartford as it is familiarly called, was incorporated in 1810 with a perpetual charter. It has done a successful general fire insurance business for half a century. Its capital and surplus amount to nearly a million dollars; its stock is quoted at a higher rate than any American company. Within the month it has sold at $215, and this price is freely offered without sales of any amount. Its semi-annual dividends have become 10 per cent fixed facts. A detailed statement of its assets will be found in another column; all the investments are first class.

F. Whitaker, of this city, is agent for this company.

The City Treasurer

Has removed his office to the room over the Meat Market on the upper bridge, and he respectfully gives notice to all who have not paid in their taxes to do so without delay, and save costs, as the time for collecting the same is drawing to a close.

GEO. A. YOUNG, City Treasurer.

A CARD.

We challenge the Union to produce a more splendid lot of Fancy Dress Silks than we are now opening, the style and quality are far superior to any ever before received by us; in fact all our goods are selected with great care, as to pattern, quality, &c., &c.

We are now receiving over $100,000 worth of merchandize, purchased by Edward McKey, who is now in New York attending the great European sales of the season.

Look out for a mammoth hand-bill in a few days.

COMMERCIAL.

Janesville Wholesale Market.

Reported for the Janesville Gazette, by BUMP & GRAY.
GRAIN AND PRODUCE DEALERS.

JANESVILLE, SEPTEMBER 27, 1860.

There was another falling off in receipts of wheat today, only 7000 bushels being on the market. Prices, under more favorable advices from the lake shore and eastern markets, were considerably firmer, and yesterday's decline was fully recovered; the range being from 82 to 85c for good to choice milling lots and 79@81c for shipping—closing with good demand at these figures. No change to note in coarse grains.

We make up prices as follows:

WHEAT—white winter 80a90c; good to choice milling spring 82a85; common to fair shipping 79a81.

CORN—old shelled at 30a32c per 60 lbs. New in ear 13a22 per 70 lbs.

OATS—in better supply at 16a18c per bushel.

RYE—in fair request at 35a40c per 60 lbs.

BARLEY—in good demand at 50a56c per 50 lbs., for good samples, and 35a45c for common.

POTATOES—plenty at 20a25c per bushel.

BUTTER—scarce at 14a16 for good to choice roll.

EGGS—quick sale at 7a8c per dozen.

HIDES—Green, 5 to 6; Dry, flint, 10 to 12.

FLOUR—spring at 2,50, per 100 lbs.

POULTRY—chickens, 6a7; turkeys, 7a8.

WOOL—ranges at 25a40c per pound for common to best clips, with but very little comming forward.

Chicago Market.

Wednesday evening, September 26.

Yesterday was one of the most active days of the season in wheat, and a large business was done at 82½a85c for No. 2 spring, 86a87½c for No 1 do., 89c for northwestern club, and 75c for rejected spring; the ruling prices being 83a83½c for No 2, and 86a86½c for No 1 spring—the market closing feverish and unsettled, owing to the contradictory nature of the eastern advices received by telegraph during the day. There was rather a better demand for flour, but the market showed but little change from Tuesday; and in order to effect sales to any extent, sellers were compelled to accept lower prices.

The attention of the community is respectfully called to the following features in connection with this Company:

First—By insuring in this company, the advantages of a Mutual Insurance Company are obtained, with the additional advantage afforded in the security given by an ample and reliable Cash Capital—a feature not presented by ordinary Mutual Fire Insurance Companies. The dividends to customers, already declared, are as follows:

1st Division to Policy-Holders,	1857,	33½	Pct
2d " " "	1858,	50	"
3d " " "	1859,	50	"
4th " " "	1860,	45	"

Second—The security given, which is already large, will constantly increase with each year of successful operation. This is exhibited clearly in the following statement, showing the position of the company in each year since the new system was adopted.

July, 1856, Net Assets of the Company,		$570,363 43
" 1857, " " "		640,719 54
" 1858, " " "		751,938 52
" 1859, " " "		905,891 84
" 1860, " " "		993,208 28

Third—The insured incur no liability whatever, while obtaining these advantages of superior security and cheapness.
